

voices of forcible measures naturally take a "we told you so" attitude and lay the blame for the critical situation now developing on those who sought to parley with the bolsheviks, among whom Lloyd George and President Wilson are given the most conspicuous place.

Reports which have been current for some days that President Wilson had sent a special mission to Russia and that the two delegates he selected, William Bullitt and Lincoln Steffens, had returned to Paris and made a report, evoked a question in the house of commons yesterday whether any allied mission had recently returned from bolshevik Russia with offers of peace from Lenin's government.

Cecil Harmsworth, undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, professed ignorance of any allied mission having been recently in bolshevik Russia other than a small British Red Cross mission.

Reports concerning the American mission were first given publicity in an article by George Lansbury. He suggested that the Bullitt-Steffens report to Wilson contained "proposals for an honorable understanding with the present rulers of Russia," and to a large extent it exonerated the bolsheviks of stories of outrage and massacre.

Meanwhile the "serious developments" at Archangel put a new aspect on the situation and to a certain extent strengthen the hands of the militarists, who argue that to bandy words with Lenin while Trotsky is preparing to drive the allied expedition into the ice floes of the White Sea is the height of political folly.

ANOTHER KHARTUM?

LONDON, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.]—Sir Ernest Shackleton, director of equipment and transport of the northern Russian expeditionary forces, has just returned from Murmansk and Archangel.

He declares in an interview that both fronts are in danger, and that the bolshevik peril is a very real one, because the entente forces are outnumbered by disciplined and well armed, and well equipped troops, in close touch with the allies' extended, but by no means strong, front.

We must avoid the possibility of another Khartum," Sir Ernest says. He urges the need of sending reinforcements immediately.

Retire on Orenburg Front.

Dispatches from Orenburg report that during the last few days the bolsheviks have been retreating on the Orenburg front so rapidly that the Siberian army in pursuit are unable to keep in touch. Bolsheviki desertions continue. As an example, fifty miles south of Ufa a whole regiment of bolshevik cavalry joined Kolesha's forces and turned their weapons on their former comrades.

The bolsheviks had accumulated at Orenburg over 3,000,000 hundredweight of grain which they had seized in the Orenburg villages. They are trying to get the greatest difficulties to transport this grain to Samara and are evacuating Orenburg.

Cleared of Bolsheviki.

The northern Caucasus, from the Black sea to the Caspian sea, has been cleared of the bolsheviks as the result of the successful campaign of the army of Gen. Denekine in that region in January and February, according to an official report issued here.

The report says that in the capture of Vladikavkaz on Jan. 23 by troops under Gen. Shkuro, completed the campaign against the bolsheviks in which 50,000 prisoners, 100 locomotives, and thousands of railway cars were taken.

Failure of the offensive in the direction of Tskumuk, in Courland, west of Riga, is admitted by the Russian soviet government in a wireless message received here today.

The message adds that fighting is in progress in the direction of Mitau, southwest of Riga, and in the region of Pskov, northeast of Riga.

Bavaria Seeks Alliance.

BERLIN, via Copenhagen, April 3.—The Bavarian government has begun negotiations for the conclusion of an alliance with Russia, according to advices from Munich. The Bavarian Volks-Zeitung explains that the government's action is due to the fact that the food supplies from the entente are insufficient and inadequately assured, whereas grain is obtainable from Russia.

SOVIETS FORCED TO BRING BACK OUSTED EXPERTS

Find Brains a Necessity; Compromise Spirit Is Growing.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.

(Chicago Tribune Evening News Service.) [Copyright: 1919. By the Tribune Company.] NINTH ARTICLE.

PETROGRAD, by Courier to Paris, April 3.—The situation in regard to Petrograd's workmen at present is delicate. There is grave discontent among the thousands of workmen. There is a growing unemployed problem. Many factories are closed down and others continue to shut down, while those running are using only a part force. Lack of raw material and fuel, worn-out machinery and inefficiency all combine to cause this.

More than once a big advance in wages has been granted by the government on a threat of strike. But the wages mean little to the workmen because there is much they can't buy at any price. Such things as they can get cost from ten to a hundred times more than ordinarily. Bread and coal are what they want—less talk and more food would probably state the real mental attitude of the Petrograd workmen.

Workers the Basis.

While the power of the soviet government is built on its Red army, with their machine guns as the arch, its future rests on the backs of the city workmen. Once they step out from under it will fall. If the soviet program can't hold these workmen in place, their army can only beat its back to the wall. The Russian revolution has meant always that in the future the people will rule.

The workmen know how to put on a revolution and the men who head the soviet government know they know. The rulers also know that strikes may come and the government be overthrown, but the city workers have been touched with the virus of revolution, but they want as well to carry on with their political and social adventures.

Great Class Compromise.

In the Russian factories and the general industrial and commercial life a great class compromise is beginning. One can see this and actually feel it. The soviet are giving and taking. They are compromising themselves and certain of their principles.

Take the railroad situation, for example. The executives are being given their old places and heads of departments are given real powers again over the workmen's committees.

The factories and commercial enterprises that have been nationalized have gone out into the market and bought with money the executive talent and brains that were used to run them in the old days. They have discovered that their dream of working class executive and workman manager was just that—a dream.

Compromise with Dream.

Possibly half unconsciously they are compromising with this dream. At present a number of the great factories are being managed by the old experts and executives. Instead of the workmen's committees that took them over at the start of the revolution. These committees still carry on and possibly even fancy they are running the shows, but the tendency now is to turn back to the old plan of talent, and this is being recognized and properly recognized because this talent and ability is absolutely necessary in the great scheme of intricate modern industry.

The factories still belong to the state, and in this there is no idea of compromise, but again the men of organizing brains are being placed in charge and well paid.

This same thing happened months ago in the army. They abolished cer-

PROPOSED TUNNEL FROM ENGLAND TO FRANCE

30-Mile Double Bore Tube, to Cost $100,000,000, May Be Built as Result of Lessons Learned During Great War.

[Copyright: 1919. By Underwood & Underwood, from Drawing by C. F. Morrell.]

One of the results of the war is expected to be the joining of England and France with a great double bore tunnel from Dover to Calais. This enterprise has been talked of for years, but it was not until the French and British were at bay in the great conflict and maintaining the passage of the channel at tremendous effort and cost that the need of a quick route from London and Paris was driven home convincingly.

Through train service from Paris to Dover would be cut down to six hours and the advantage of a continuous freight haul would be tremendous.

Borrowing the American idea of train ferries, used for years on the great lakes, the British established such a service running between Richborough and Calais. This enabled the transportation of guns and munitions across the straits of Dover in complete trainloads.

The cost of this great proposed engineering feat is placed at $100,000,000 and the time of building at five years. The general dimensions of the tunnel follows:

Length, thirty miles, of which twenty-two miles will be under sea. Diameter of bore, twenty feet. Depth of tunnel floor below sea level, 350 feet. Average depth of water is 180 feet, 150 feet of gray chalk between sea bottom and top of bore for protection against explosives placed by submarines.

Oblique connecting tunnels placed every 600 feet for switching purposes should any section become obstructed.

Water lock, one mile long, dipped below general level of tunnel sufficiently to permit flooding in case of emergency, to be controlled from Dover.

Engineers believe no insurmountable difficulties will be met in building the tunnel, but admit the greatest question is whether the gray chalk underlying the straits of Dover is impervious to water.

and peace, and the peasants land and peace. So a new generation of leaders is coming up—hard headed men who know they will have to compromise. The idealist will never compromise, but the practical man will. No matter what the world may think there is no question that the few men who dreamed this social revolution were idealists; they dreamed it and now a second class of men must put it over in a practical way.

Hope for World Revolt. Just how far these men will compromise no one knows, because certain idealists still remain high in the communist power to check them. Right now they are placing their faith in a worldwide revolution. When they are convinced this will not come they are preparing themselves to make great compromises with the world and the old order of things. They are breaking the trail for this now. They are holding out tempting offers, great concessions, and the payment of Russia's debts to the world.

They are calling back men of brains and genius to run their nationalized factories and railroads and businesses for them. They are going to be forced into compromise with the peasants in order to break his unconscious food strike. All this will mean communism or bolshevism will keep only its name, and change certain aspects of its leaders.

[Mr. Hunt's final article on Russia will appear tomorrow.]

FRANK J. PRINCE, EX-SOCIAL PET, AGAIN ARRESTED

Frank J. Prince, whose skyrocket social career was enlivened by charges of a vanishing diamond ring and a $18,000 shortage at the Egan Wrecking Service company, was arrested again yesterday.

The warrant charges Prince by bail, the complainant being the Egan Wrecking Service company, of which James Egan is president.

Egan befriended Prince when he was paroled in January, 1918, from the Joliet penitentiary, where he was serving a sentence for forgery.

REDS OPEN DRIVE IN EAST PRUSSIA; GERMANS RESIST

150,000 Metal Workers Out in Berlin; Troops Go to Frankfurt.

LONDON, April 3.—German troops are resisting a bolshevik offensive in East Prussia, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch dated Wednesday. In Berlin, transmitting reports received there.

Metal workers to the number of 150,000 had gone on strike in Berlin up to Wednesday evening, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from the German capital says.

Berlin Chief Suspended. BERLIN, April 1.—[By the Associated Press.]—[Delayed.]—Commander Kjaume of the Berlin forces has been suspended until further notice by Gustave Noske, minister of defense, because of "grave mistakes." According to the Vossische Zeitung, financial difficulties are believed to be responsible for the suspension.

Troops Move to Frankfurt. COBLENZ, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.]—German troops opposite the Coblenz bridgehead began moving early Thursday toward Frankfurt, where a Spartacist revolt has been causing disorder.

Street fighting followed an attempt by the local authorities to gain control of the situation. The German troops opposite the American bridgehead were then called on for help.

Many persons are reported to have been killed in the fighting Monday and Tuesday. In street fighting Tuesday which lasted several hours four women are known to have been killed and a large number of civilians are reported to have been wounded.

Fourth American Food Ship Is Nearing Hamburg

HAMBURG, Tuesday, April 1.—The American steamship West Wauna, of 4,300 tons, bearing food supplies, left Cuxhaven for Hamburg today. This is the fourth ship bearing foodstuffs for Germany that has arrived or is near port. The former German auxiliary cruiser Raider Wolf left Hamburg today as the Wachfeld, after having been transformed into a merchantman.

Judge Declares War Is Ended in Decision

Leuterville, Ky., April 3.—In line with an informal statement from the bench on March 24, Federal Judge Walter Evans today handed down a decision holding that the war in Europe legally is at an end, and that a plea for a new trial after conviction of violating wartime military regulations after the armistice was signed has standing in court.

Ace of "Dekes" Tells of Yanks' Work in Battle

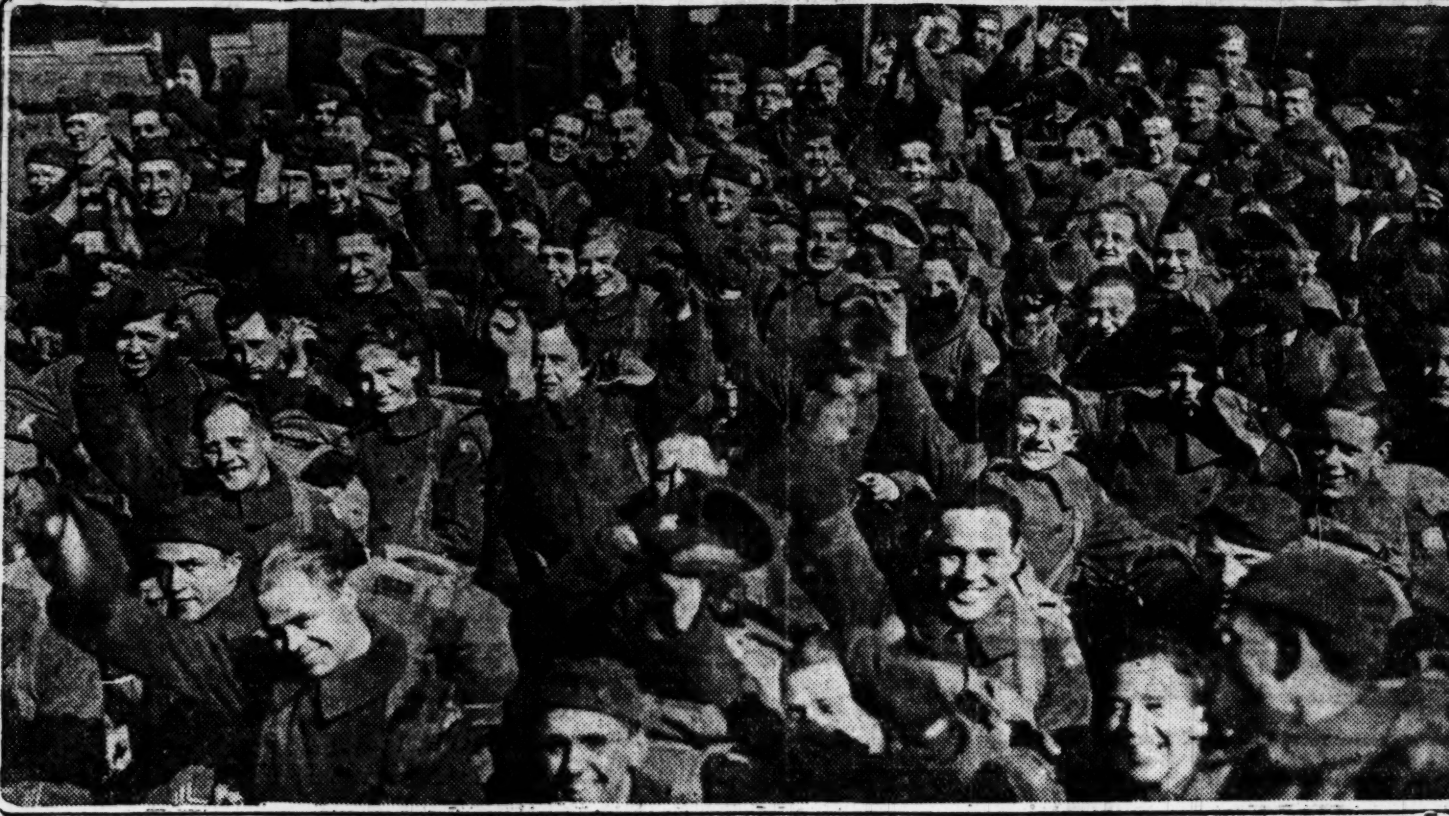

Tribute to the courage, energy and morale of the American fighters was paid by speakers at a "Victory" dinner at the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity in the Blackstone hotel last night, at which were members from several mid-west cities. The principal speaker of the dinner was Capt. G. De Frest Larmer of the Lafayette escadrille, the ace of the "Dekes."

BENTINCK CALLS "INTERVIEW WITH KAISER" A FAKE

LONDON, April 3.—The articles in the London Chronicle by Harold Begbie describing his visit to Amersfoort, quoting the former German Kaiser's alleged state of mind, charging Russia with responsibility for the war and asserting his own innocence of any guilt, have attracted wide attention. The London bureau of the Associated Press today received the following telegram: "Amersfoort, April 3.—Harold Begbie has not had an interview with the former emperor. His written questions remained unanswered. He did not receive any authorization to publish the emperor's views and no statement was given to him. He never saw the emperor; neither did he enter the castle gates."

Count Carlos Bentinck is a son of Count Godard Bentinck, who is serving as host to the former Kaiser at the request of the Dutch government, and is said to manage the establishment during its occupancy by the fugitive.

PARIS, April 3.—[By the Associated Press.]—The French foreign office is advised that 200 Germans have been arrested in Barcelona and Seville. They are charged with participating in the riots in those cities.

CARED FOR 60,645 SICK AND WOUNDED

The landing of most of the members of Base Hospital Unit No. 12 marks the return of a group of leading physicians and surgeons of the Chicago area who were among the first to see actual service in France. They left Chicago May 16, 1917, and landed in England June 2, reaching Boulogne June 11. The medical officers of the outfit were from the Northwestern University College of Medicine, Rush Medical College, and Illinois College of Physicians and Surgeons. The unit was quickly recruited from Chicago and Evanston men and nurses from the various hospitals. These did not return, as they were needed by Gen. Pershing.

Discharges During Week of March 22 Were 65,939

Washington, D. C., April 3.—Discharges of enlisted men from the army for the week of March 22 totaled 65,939, the war department announced today. Incomplete daily reports to March 26 bring the grand total of discharges of enlisted personnel to 1,447,714.

EGYPT REBELS WELL ORGANIZED, LONDON HEARS

LONDON, April 3.—A delayed Reuter dispatch from Cairo, under date of March 24, reviewing the uprising, says that within a short time Egypt was aflame from Alexandria to Assouan. The depredations and excesses recorded must have struck horror into the heart of every civilized being. Owing to the prompt military measures, however, the disturbances in Cairo and Alexandria were not nearly so serious as elsewhere.

The situation was made difficult by the cutting of railways and telegraph lines. "Within a few hours," the correspondent says, "we saw the Egypt of 1882 again before us. But whereas at that time the rioters were unorganized, there certainly seems to be organization behind the present movement. We have seen the telegraphs cut at the most vital points and railways destroyed by men evidently knowing their work. The tram railway employees, native lawyers, and others simultaneously ceased working. All efforts were employed to paralyze everything."

Inter-Allied Board Plans to Revoke Jugo-Slav Chief

ROME, April 3.—[Havas.]—The inter-allied commission at Laibach, Jugo-Slavia, the Epoca says, has decided to revoke the Jugo-Slav general who some time ago ordered the expulsion of an Italian mission from Laibach. The mission, it is added, will return to Laibach.

"SOCIETY GIRL," HELD AS THIEF, HIDES IDENTITY

A case of concealed identity was disclosed yesterday when a smartly attired young woman, said to be a member of a wealthy Chicago family, was arraigned on a charge of larceny in the South Clark street court.

Mrs. May Flannigan of 1216 Sherwin avenue was the complainant. She said she was trying on a new coat Wednesday afternoon in a State street department store and that the young woman walked away with her old coat and her mesh bag.

Giving the name of Miss Lillian A. Cosby and her home address as Elkhart, Ind., the defendant denied Mrs. Flannigan's charge and entered a plea of not guilty. She was represented by Attorney Max Krause.

"Your honor," he said to Judge Hugh R. Stewart, "my client is the daughter of a prominent Chicagoan. If her name is made public it will mean disgrace for the family. She has taken this assumed name as a means of protection."

After the hearing it was learned that a Miss Lillian A. Cosby lives in Elkhart and that her father, Walter Cosby, came to Chicago yesterday and declared the defendant not his daughter.

KING THEODORE STARTS REVOLT IN ABYSSINIA

ADIS ABABA, Abyssinia, Wednesday, April 2.—A grandson of King Johannes II., who died in 1889, has revolted and declared himself king under the name of Theodore. The government has sent out a punitive expedition to put down the rebellion.

Gov. Tejon of Dedjazmach also has revolted against the government. The government announces that it will send a mission to Paris to apply for the admission of Abyssinia to the league of nations.

U. S. Lends More Millions to Italy and France

Washington, D. C., April 3.—Credits of $85,000,000 to France and $25,000,000 to Italy were announced today by the treasury. The total advanced to the Allies is $9,008,999,340.75, of which France has received $2,702,477,800, and Italy $1,521,500,000.

ITALY READY TO GREET YANKS. ROME, April 3.—Arrangements have been completed for American troops in France to visit the principal Italian cities at the rate of a thousand soldiers a day before sailing for home. It was announced today.

FOUR AVIATORS IN THE A. E. F. DIE IN COLLISION

Accident in U. S. Also Kills Two Noted Officers.

BY PARKE BROWN. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [By Special Cable.]

TREVES, April 3.—Two American airplanes crashed in the air and as they fell sent two others tumbling down yesterday near the town of Wittlich. Three officers and an enlisted man were killed and one officer and one enlisted man were injured.

The dead: Lieut. Clayton Nichols, 35 Cedar street, Worcester, Mass. Lieut. Rodrick D. Coe, Nesbitt, Mass. Lieut. Charles Fovell, 1464 Amsterdam avenue, New York. Private John J. Solerno, 434 Pearl street, New York.

The injured: Lieut. W. C. Morris, 97 South Main street, Concord, N. H.; injuries slight. Sergt. William P. Carson, Burton, W. Va.; skull fractured.

Members of 166th Squadron. All were members of the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth squadron now at the Treves aerodrome. Their machines were two seater D-H fours. In a formation flight the seven planes had taken off over Wittlich as an objective. The formation was flying close together at a low height. Suddenly one "doomed" to pass over the leader from the rear. His wing caught the tail of the machine ahead. Both the wing and tail were torn off and the two machines fell.

Apparently flying fragments struck the other two machines, as the controls of both the latter at once went out of order. One fell in the Moselle river, drowning Lieut. Coe. It is said here that this was the worst accident of that sort in the history of American military aviation. The army of occupation has been in Germany four months and there have been only three previous fatalities in the air service.

Two Aviation Leaders Die

Americus, Ga., April 3.—Lieut. Col. Frederick W. Dickman, commanding officer at Southern field, near here, and Maj. John W. Butts, executive officer, were killed today in the fall of an airplane in which they were making a flight. Col. Dickman was the son of Maj. Gen. Dickman, commanding the Third American army of the expeditionary forces.

The two officers had been up for the customary afternoon flight and had made the last turn of the field preparatory to descending when their engine suddenly stopped and the plane came crashing down in a tail spin from a height of 200 feet.

Both of the officers were graduates of West Point. Maj. Butts' home was Cisco, Tex. Total toll of 106 at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 3.—Records show that at the three Fort Worth air fields, where flying practically ceased today and all enlisted men were discharged, 106 men were killed from Nov. 7, 1917, to April 1, 1919.

Eleven Gold Stars at Dallas

Dallas, Tex., April 3.—At Love field in this city, which soon will be discontinued, the total number of flying accidents were eleven, of which nine were officers and two cadets.

MYSTERY 'GOB' IN LONDON IS MUSKEGON MAN

Sailor with Lost Memory Is L. S. Seeley of Michigan.

BY ARTHUR E. MANN. [Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [Special Wireless.]

LONDON, April 3.—The American navy's mystery man has been identified. He is Seaman Leslie S. Seeley of Western avenue and Jefferson street, Muskegon, Mich. But the mystery of why he came to be found unconscious and almost naked in front of the Curzon hotel early last Friday morning is still unsolved.

Seeley has not yet regained his memory. He had heard the name "Seeley," he thinks, and because he is told it is his, he believes so, but he can recall nothing from the still sealed book of his past.

Identified by Officer

The question of identification was settled when an officer under whom Seeley had worked at the American naval air station at Eastleigh, near Southampton, arrived in London Wednesday night, and saw his picture. Seeley, when he disappeared from Eastleigh, was under orders to board the former ex-German merchantman Patricia, which was surrendered at Cowes recently. The American crew took over the vessel either on Wednesday or Thursday, and Seeley's presence in London, therefore, was unauthorized.

American medical officers are now about convinced that Seeley's loss of memory is due to a blow on the head which he is believed to have received. They think it only a question of time before he recovers, as they say they have had to deal with much worse cases of a similar nature, resulting from shell shock.

No Traces of Drugs

He appeared to be quite normal, the Eastleigh officer who identified him said, and the doctors found no traces of drugs or intoxication. So far the London police have been unable to discover what happened to Seeley in London. Inquiries at the boarding house address he gave them show he was never there, and investigation at the American Y. M. C. A., the Eagle hut and other soldiers' and sailors' hotels have been without result.

Efforts are being made to locate an automobile which the night porter of the Curzon hotel said he heard pull up and then drive off again. Just before Seeley was found. With only the present information to go on, it is quite likely that nothing further will be discovered until Seeley begins to regain his memory.

RAINBOW FLINGS CHALLENGE TO RIVAL DIVISIONS

More Days in Battle, Won
More Ground, than Other Yanks.

BY PARKE BROWN.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[By Special Cable.]

COBLENZ, Germany, April 2. — On the eve of its departure for America, the Rainbow division (Forty-second) has flung forth a challenge to all other units in the United States army overseas.

The official intelligence summary issued today by Col. William N. Hughes, chief of staff, contains a tabloid history of the organization, of which the One Hundred and Forty-ninth P. A. is a part, which concludes with the declaration:

"The Forty-second division proudly asserts that it has spent more days in the face of the enemy, gained more ground against the enemy, and marched further in its operations than any other division in the American expeditionary forces. It has been opposed by the best divisions in the German army and has made its record at its expense."

Commented by Pershing.

Almost simultaneously the division has received from Gen. Pershing a letter commending "its splendid record" and expressing his pride in it.

"The share which the Forty-second division has had in the success of our armies," the commander in chief wrote, "should arouse pride in its achievements among all ranks."

Extracts from the division's intelligence summary follow:

"The Forty-second division began its career as a shock division, in the great defensive battle against the Germans in the Champagne on July 15. In this, its first major action, the division took a splendid part in the bloody repulse inflicted by Gen. Gouraud's Fourth army upon the great German offensive and earned the official and personal commendation of the French command."

Relieve Battered Units.

"When the German advance had been definitely and forever checked in his battle, the division was moved overland to the line where, relieving five battered American and French divisions, it advanced by desperate open fighting against choice German troops a distance of ninety (nine) and half miles."

[The foregoing evidently refers to the Rainbow's action in the Marne salient to the Oureq river. After the Champagne victory and Foch took the initiative to clear out the Soissons-Chateau Thierry-Reims salient, the Rainbow was switched from the east

TRANSATLANTIC FLYERS MAY CARRY 4 LIBERTY MOTORS

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Experiments are under way at the naval air station at Rockaway Beach, L. I., to determine the number of liberty motors which will drive the naval seaplanes on the proposed flight across the Atlantic ocean next month.

The three N-4 type of planes now in commission were designed for three engines, but officers in charge of preparations for the flight believe it will be possible to add a fourth motor giving each plane 1,600 horsepower.

Four motors will be carried by the N-4 now being completed at Garden City, L. I.

Naval officials here are watching with keen interest the preparations being made by Harry G. Hawker and Lieut. Commander Mackenzie Grieve for their projected flight from Newfoundland to Ireland in a Sopwith triplane and they were not surprised by the news that it had been found necessary to delay the start beyond April 15, the first day set. This machine still may be the first to undertake the transatlantic voyage as there is no evidence that the navy department intends to hasten the start of its flight.

Reims to a point northeast of Chateau Thierry, where it went into action, driving to the Oureq, a distance of some six miles.

Sent Into St. Mihiel.

"Relieved and sent to the rear for rest and replacements, the fighting at the front was so severe that the division could not be spared and was in a few days returned to the line to take part in the St. Mihiel operation. After the salient had ceased to exist the division, pausing long enough to organize the front on its new line, moved to the Argonne. Attacking first on the front opposite St. Georges and Landres-et-St. Georges and there advancing until the First army made its pause for breath, the division again attacked and drove forward through countless obstacles of the defense and terrain until it was relieved by the armistice in the outskirts of Sedan, having gained some what more than nineteen miles."

Brig. Gen. G. G. Gately is supervising the final arrangements for getting the Rainbow home. He recently took over command from Maj. Gen. Clement A. F. Flieger, who is thought here to be on his way home.

Chicago Veteran of War Dies in U. S. of Gas

Newport News, Va., April 3.—[Special.]—Frank Kuyak, a Chicago veteran of the world war, died today at the detention camp as the result of being gassed in France. Physicians say the young man contracted tuberculosis after being gassed. The body will be sent to Chicago for burial.

DRAINAGE MEETING POSTPONED.—At the meeting of the drainage board yesterday no business was transacted, adjournment being immediately when it was announced that the majority of the trustees were in Springfield in connection with the proposed waterway project.

probably would annex the entire left bank of the Rhine, but surely would get Saar basin, while Germany has been told that the only territory they could possibly lose might be Alsace-Lorraine. If the fixation of boundaries is left to a commission, which probably would require a year to make its findings, the peoples would be less interested, and less likely to make trouble over failure to obtain what has been promised to them.

SPLIT BECOMES SERIOUS.

(By the Associated Press.) PARIS, April 3.—President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George, Clemenceau, and Orlando continued their discussion at President Wilson's residence today.

The meetings proceeded amid another wave of apprehension spreading through the conference, however, over lack of any tangible results after the council of four had labored continuously for ten days.

This was accompanied by well founded reports from those close in touch with the council of four showing that the situation, while not desperate, was at least serious because of radical differences on some fundamentals in the settlement of Germany's western front.

In response to the demand from Chicago and the Middle West for expert instruction in tion, the Franco-German frontier, and the eastern Polish frontier.

Wilson Opposes French. One of the American experts, who is constantly being consulted on various questions before the council, gives the following glimpse of what is going on behind the scenes:

"The situation is extremely difficult, particularly as regards the western frontier of Germany. President Wilson, in a conciliatory spirit, has been willing to do most anything to assure French security short of the stiffening of engagements made at the time of the armistice."

"The French have been assured of every military protection along the Rhine and for fifty kilometers east of that river, even to the extent of considering that any military activity in that section shall be looked upon as a hostile act."

More than Security.

"But this is not considered enough and additional claims lead to the conviction that they are open to construction as meaning something more than military security and verging on territorial control."

"The president is not willing to go that far in creating more Alsace-Lorraine situations, and it is this stand against these claims which is causing the delays until some middle ground is found."

As a means of finding the "middle ground" on the Rhine controversy, the supercouncil of four created a consulting body consisting of Andre Tardieu, France; Charles H. Haskins, American; and Viscount Morley, British. They labored until 2 o'clock this morning and then called on Col. E. M. House before seeing the council. To intimate they were not optimistic on the progress that is being made.

Another of President Wilson's entourage said the real issue was whether President Wilson's principle of self-determination was to be upheld. The president, he said, did not regard this as a principle which should be applied when favorable to the entente and not applied in all cases alike.

King Albert of Belgium figured prominently during today's conference. The Belgian monarch called on Col. House at 11 o'clock in the morning and later saw President Wilson.

Two League Seats.

There is a possibility that the league of nations will have two seats, at Geneva and at Brussels. This plan is being considered. Although a majority of the delegates apparently favor Geneva, King Albert's strong appeal in behalf of Brussels is influencing sentiment, and the palaces offered by both the Swiss and the Belgians may both be accepted and alternate meetings arranged.

The league of nations drafting committee has completed fifteen articles of the league of nations covenant, which now contains twenty-seven articles. It is not known what the additional articles are.

Finish Draft Today.

The committee probably will finish its draft tomorrow, which will be in French and English, in parallel columns.

A full meeting of the league commission will be held, probably Saturday, to consider the revised covenant, which doubtless will undergo further changes before it is submitted to the representatives of the five big nations.

The revision thus far does not contain mention either of the Monroe doctrine or the proposed Japanese amendments. These questions will not be disposed of until the next meeting of the league commission.

The departure of Gen. Jan Christian Smuts, member of the British league of nations commission for Budapest, instead of Gen. Mangin of the French army, who was first suggested as the allied representative to investigate certain problems in Hungary arising from the armistice, is regarded as an indication that talking, rather than fighting, will take place in Hungary, where the situation is believed by the allied officials to have improved greatly.

FOCH JOLTS ERZBERGER.

SPA, April 3.—[By Havas.]—Marshal Foch arrived in Spa at 8:30 o'clock this morning and immediately informed Matthias Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, that he would confer with him in his private car at 9:30 o'clock.

The conference took place at the appointed time in the presence of Maj. Gen. Weygand, assistant to Marshal Foch, and a French interpreter and lasted forty minutes.

Marshal Foch laid before Herr Erzberger the decisions of the entente. Erzberger, after the conference, hurriedly returned to his train. He appeared deeply moved.

After a conference of one hour with Gen. Baron von Hammerstein, a member of the German armistice commission, and his technical advisers, Erzberger returned to the hotel where the German members of the armistice commission are lodged.

COURT MARTIAL HE CONDEMNED MAY TRY ANSELL

Inspector General Begins
Formal Inquiry Into His Case.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., April 3.—(Special.)—That Lieut. Col. Ansell, formerly acting judge advocate general, may be tried for insubordinate conduct by the very court martial system he has condemned as an institution of injustice was clearly indicated by developments here today.

The anger of the powers that rule the army, from Secretary of War Baker down, has been stirred to a high pitch by Col. Ansell's attacks on their administration of military justice, and particularly by his revelation of war department secrets and reflections upon the veracity and good faith of his superior officers.

Letter Attacks Baker.
Publication today of Col. Ansell's sensational letter to the secretary of war attacking Mr. Baker and Gen. Crowder for their attitude in defending and maintaining the existing system of court martial and assailing Gen. Chamberlain added fuel to the flames of the controversy. When asked what comment he had to make upon the letter, which he had suppressed and returned to Col. Ansell, Secretary Baker said:

"The important part of this matter is the question of military justice. Upon that subject the committee of the American Bar association and various other agencies are at work. My very earnest desire is to have every defect of the system discovered and remedied. The writer of abuse, accusation and violent language about personal differences between officers can only be properly inquired into through the regularly established agencies of the army, and I can make no comment upon those features until I have received the report of the inspector general."

The secretary was asked if the inspector general's investigation is likely to be followed by a court martial. "I cannot say anything about that," replied Mr. Baker.

Sentences Being Cut.
The secretary in response to an inquiry said that Col. Ansell is still chairman of the clemency board. This body, created following Col. Ansell's charges that the administration of the court martial system has been "extremely unjust to enlisted men," is reducing sentences by the hundreds.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, Democrat, chairman of the senate military affairs committee in the last congress, who secured Mr. Baker in a speech last night in connection with the courts martial question, came in for a display of the secretary's ire today. "My attention has been called to a newspaper account of a very intemperate speech by Senator Chamberlain," said Mr. Baker. "I have been secretary of war for three years. During that time I have received the most cordial and helpful cooperation from the members of the senate military committee, and the committee as a whole. From Senator Chamberlain I do not recall that I have ever received a suggestion which was helpful or seemed intended to be helpful. I am perfectly willing to let the people of the country decide between what the war department has done in three years and what Senator Chamberlain has said in three years."

Reply by Chamberlain.
Natchez, Miss., April 3.—"But for the things I have said in the last three years, the secretary of war would have accomplished nothing in the last three years," Senator Chamberlain of Oregon declared here tonight. "Mr. Baker has steadily followed the suggestions made by the chairman and members of the military affairs committee," Senator Chamberlain continued, "but claimed them all as his own after he had been driven to their adoption. I join with him in expressing a willingness to submit it to the American people as to whether they will approve of his Prussianizing the army or my efforts to democratize it."

Respite Sought for Debs as Step to Pardon

Washington, D. C., April 3.—Application for a respite preliminary to petition for pardon of Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist leader, sentenced to ten years imprisonment for violation of the espionage act, has been received at the White House and will be referred to Attorney General Palmer. The request is signed by Frank P. Walsh, Charles Edward Russell, and Alan Benson. It has not been brought to the attention of President Wilson. It was learned today that the attorney general has been advised of its receipt.

G. O. P. for World League, Says Hays in Indiana

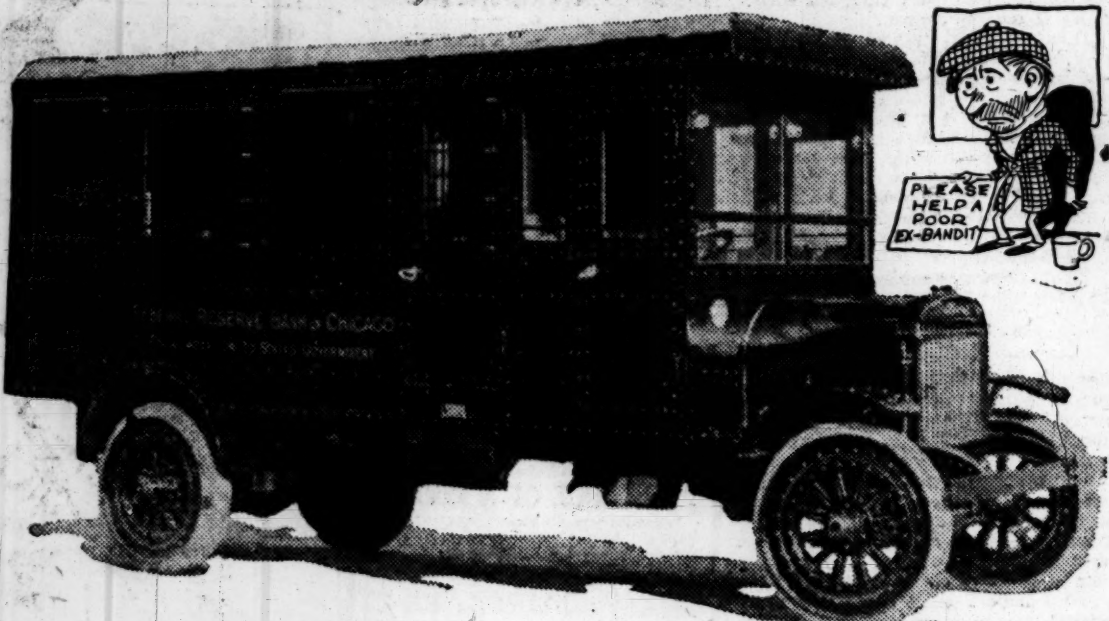

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3.—Will Hays, national Republican chairman, said today that the G. O. P. endorses a league of nations. He did not discuss the proposed covenant as now being drawn in Paris. In a letter to Senator Elihu Root Hays said he asked "the great international lawyer" for an opinion on a league of nations, and he says Root's position outlined in a recent address was satisfactory to him and the Republican party.

Payroll robbers will need a baby tank to cope with Uncle Sam's latest "money wagon." The federal reserve bank of Chicago yesterday put into commission a "bandit proof" auto truck for hauling large amounts of money through the city. The body of the truck, which is closed like a patrol wagon, is made of steel plates, riveted like the sides of a ship. Bars cover the windows, and the driver is protected by a steel pilot house. The step at the rear entrance is hauled aboard when the truck is under way.

GERMANS WEST OF RHINE TAUGHT YANKEE JUSTICE

BY PARKE BROWN.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(By Special Cable.)

COBLENZ, April 3.—Some jubilation was manifest when George Norbert Jacob Maria Drotthom of Bedort walked into a barber shop on the Goebenplatz like a town crier.

"English officers and men," he said, "have joined the Spartacists and have looted the banks and hotels of Cologne." Under the Turkish towel in the barber shop were the ears of an American soldier. They took in all the news, and in less than five minutes an M. P. took a hand in the gossiping. In fact, he took two hands. The following day George, et cetera, went to detention for ten days. He was only 19 years old or it would have been worse.

Stefan Probst, a hotel porter, was found stealing American food. When seized he threatened to blow up the whole hotel with all the Americans it contained. He got ninety days. Alfred Dyroff operated a little jewelry shop at 89 Loebstrasse, where his wife was his assistant. Neither he nor his frau, Elsie, wanted American patronage. So when a witch made in Illinois was brought to them to repair they fixed it by twisting a screwdriver around among the cogs. Just for that both Alfred and Elsie were locked up for thirty days and made to do hard labor.

Just because he said, "To hell with you," when stopped by an American sentry, Heipen Stell went to the jug for twenty days, and Peter Maders, who disobeyed an order to remain at the railroad station and take the next train back in the direction from which he came, was fined 500 marks.

HUNGARY MAY REPUDIATE ITS PUBLIC DEBT

BUDAPEST, via Vienna, Tuesday, April 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The new Hungarian cabinet includes Herr Kunt and Alexander Gombal, who is now president, and also Herr Boehm, who is commissioner of socialization. Boehm is a former war minister. These men are regarded as conservatives.

They wish to fix the limit of individual fortunes at $20,000 and would deal with the estate rather than with the Russian Lenin. They are undecided about the public debt. However, there is an inclination to repudiate it, according to Dr. Alexis Bolgar, who once lived in the United States and now is the Hungarian representative in Vienna.

System of Voting.
COPENHAGEN, April 3.—The new government in Hungary has definitely promulgated a system of government by village, town, district, and county councils, and a national assembly of councils, a dispatch from Budapest says.

The representatives to the national assembly will be elected by the town and county councils. The last day on which elections can be held for the councils has been fixed for April 14. All men and women who have reached the age of 18 will be permitted to vote, with the exception of those who employ wage earners for profit or who live on unearned income or are merchants, priests, monks, criminals, or lunatics.

U. S. ARMY NURSE BECOMES BRIDE OF MAJOR LEAHY

Miss Cadda Twidell, United States army nurse, and Maj. William J. Leahy, who, during the war, served in the officers' reserve corps, and who is a general passenger agent of the Rock Island lines, were married yesterday in New York.

Miss Twidell served at the base hospital at Rahway, New Jersey, for several months and was assistant superintendent of the institution. She is a graduate of the Henrietta hospital training school, later was a nurse there. She has been with the Policlinic hospital also and has received high praise for her work in major operations from the surgeons of Chicago. She received her discharge from the government yesterday.

Miss Twidell is a daughter of Joseph Twidell, Montpelier, Ind. "Mr. and Mrs. Leahy will return to Chicago Monday, April 6."

MAJ. GEN. WOOD WINS AMERICAN SERVICE MEDAL

For Excellent Work Training
Yankees for Fighting in France.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., April 3.—(Special.)—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commander of the central department with headquarters at Chicago, has been awarded the distinguished service medal by direction of the president for his excellent work in training American soldiers for fighting in France.

Gen. Wood, whose ambition was to participate in the actual engagements of the war, was stopped at the dock in New York when his first division from Camp Funston was ordered to Europe. An order from the war department returning him to Camp Funston for training other units blasted his hopes and considerable criticism of war department heads was voiced in and out of congress for keeping Gen. Wood at home.

Friends of Gen. Wood, who blazed the way for preparedness far in advance of any other officers of the army, have insisted from the beginning that he was made the victim of army politics, if not of partisan politics. The citation by the war department in awarding Gen. Wood the distinguished service medal says:

"Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, United States army. For especially meritorious and conspicuous service as a department division, and camp commander during the war. He has displayed qualities of leadership and professional attainments of a high order in the administration and training of his various commands and has furthered in every way during the war the system of officers' training schools." The list of officers awarded the distinguished service medal, issued by the war department today, includes also the names of Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott and John F. Morrison.

Lieut. Col. Roosevelt Sees Soldier-Ruled U. S.

New York, April 3.—(Special.)—Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt addressed the chamber of commerce today, telling the members about his experiences in France. Roosevelt said that the men of the American expeditionary forces would eventually rule the country, adding that it remains for the chamber of commerce and other similar forces to guide them into the proper channels. He said that the American soldier, broadened by his war experience, would come home to take more interest in governmental affairs.

MAURETANIA DUE IN NEW YORK APRIL 10 WITH MIDWEST MEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The transport Mauretania, the war department announced today, is due at New York about April 10 with a large contingent of the Three Hundred and Thirty-seventh infantry, Eighty-fifth division, composed of Michigan and Wisconsin troops. Also aboard the Mauretania are aero squadron No. 12, nineteen casual officers, including Brig. Gen. Eli K. Cole of the marine corps, and about thirty sick and wounded.

GOLDEN RULE UNREST CURE —ROCKEFELLER

New Haven, Conn., April 3.—(Special.)—John D. Rockefeller Jr., in a discussion of the lines along which this country may establish industrial peace, said that nothing can be done until both capital and labor do actually put into operation the golden rule. "Do as you would be done by." In an interview in the Yale Daily News today he said:

"As nations prosper social strata are formed, with the result that misunderstandings arise, bitterness is created and class antagonism and hatred are stirred up. But when it becomes possible to break through the social economic barriers and establish human relationships, then mutual suspicions vanish, a spirit of cooperation is substituted for hatred; bolshevism on the one hand and economic tyranny on the other become impossible.

"Bolshevism is not likely to take serious proportions or spread in the United States when the wage earners know that capital is treating labor fairly."

LIVES ORGANIZE TO ENTICE BACK STOVE SHY COOKS

War Wages and Industrial Freedom Leave Kitchen Empty.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., April 3.—(Special.)—To avert the strange new peril which the war being over, has risen to endanger the homes of the United States and Great Britain, American housewives are working out a plan for the use of a movement already under way in England to solve the servant problem.

In London the answer is the Legionary. In this country, according to the United States department of labor, it is the industrialization of domestic service.

Cooks Dodge Old Job.
What is really needed, and desperately needed, is a cook in every home, and cooks who are willing to serve their country as war workers in munition plants, factories, shops, or offices, at wages far in excess of the salary paid before the war or since to many a college professor, are showing a disturbing reluctance to return to their pre-war status. Whether the cook in question is mistress or maid in the days before the war, the result is the same. In neither capacity is she in any considerable numbers, doing any cooking now.

The home is transferring itself nervously to hotels or boarding houses. The Legionary is the brain child of Lady Londonderry, president of the Women's Legion.

"The Legionary," according to Lady Londonderry, "must be willing to cooperate with their employers and fellow workers as to interchange of duties in order that the shorter hours of work may not interfere with the necessary routine of the house."

Skeptical of Plan.
Washington women are openly skeptical of the success of such an experiment in the United States. They say it may work in England, and they hope it will, but so far as Washington is concerned "you can't," they assert with conviction, "get servants at any price or on any plan."

Women's clubs throughout the country, however, are cooperating with the department of labor to reorganize domestic service and establish in each community, as Lady Londonderry has in London, a scale of wages, hours of work, and standards of efficiency. Plans are also on foot to provide a course of instruction for domestic servants as the U. S. W. C. A. already has done in New York, and this may be extended to the public schools, if the results justify the innovation.

A. OF C. FORMS COUNCIL FOR ADVERTISING MEN
The Chicago Association of Commerce has organized an advertising council. Each advertising manager in the 6,000 firms represented in the association's membership is automatically a member of this council. Where a firm had no advertising manager, some other interested member of the firm will be designated as its representative.

One of the activities of this council will be the holding of large mass meetings at noon in the nineteenth floor banquet room of the Hotel La Salle at least once a month, to be addressed by well known advertising experts from all parts of the United States on topics vital to advertising.

The activities of this council will be under the direct supervision of a committee of thirty leading advertising men of Chicago. This committee comprises:

Mr. Frank MacFarlane, David B. Maxwell, Ernest L. Mitchell, H. B. Mafford, H. W. Parsons, G. R. Schaeffer, Henry Schott, Howard Van S. Tracy, Ralph Van Vleet, A. D. White, Frank B. White, W. T. Hester, T. R. Woodward, Clifton P. Lampan, R. B. Beach, William Laughlin.

Wife Wins Divorce and $2,500 from H. M. Clark
I found them in a room and they were undressed," said Mrs. Mary M. Clark yesterday, testifying in her divorce suit against Harlan M. Clark, 30,000 a year employee of Armour & Co. "One time it was in the Morrison and another time in the Great Northern hotel. Her name was Rita Hull."

Mrs. Clark was awarded $2,500 in cash, $25 a month and a life insurance policy of $10,000 when Judge Jacob H. Hopkins signed a decree of divorce.

B. F. Winterston, head of the E. F. Winterston Seed company, 168 North Wabash avenue, testified in behalf of his sister, Mrs. Clark.

REJECT ACCIDENT THEORY IN DEATH OF MRS. BLACK

Inquest Findings Point to Murder or Suicide.

weapon; then he described it at or near his wife's left hand, with the explanation that he had been so excited and confused by her condition that he had difficulty in remembering details.

Macabrey, the first to reach Mrs. Black, told the coroner he had not seen the weapon at all. The same statement was made by his cousin, Tulo, who followed him down the cellar stairs, though Tulo admitted, when Chief Peterson asked him to obtain the weapon from the basement—it was then several hours after the shooting—he found it with its butt toward the spot occupied by Mrs. Black's head.

Husband First Witness.
Mr. Black was the first witness. He said that his wife was 41 years old; born at Fort Madison, Ia., and had resided in Chicago for twenty years.

Coroner Hoffman then took up the examination of the witness, begun by Deputy J. J. Flann.

Q—With whom did you leave your wife when you went downtown to business yesterday morning? A—With my butler, who has been in my employ three years.

Q—What time did you return yesterday evening? A—About 5:05 o'clock the train arrived. I probably was in the house within ten or fifteen minutes.

Q—Describe what happened. A—A cousin of my butler had arrived to pay him a visit during the afternoon, so when Macabrey left to meet me at the train with the motor, Padre (the cousin) was left alone in the house with Mrs. Black. I believe that Padre arrived at the front door, while Macabrey drove the machine into the garage and entered the house through the door in the basement.

Tells of Tragic Story.
Q—Did you inquire at once for your wife? A—I looked into the living room, but she was not there. I supposed, however, she was in her room, and so I went upstairs to dress myself for dinner. Mrs. Black's door was partly opened. I thought she was asleep; so I entered quietly. It was our custom to talk when I returned from business and I was surprised when I found the room unoccupied. I stepped next into the hall, and met Eugene (Macabrey) coming up the stairs from the first floor. I said, "Where is Mrs. Black?" And he responded, "I don't know, but maybe she's in the basement. I directed him to go at once and ascertain. In a moment he came racing back and told me Mrs. Black had been shot. I hastened to her at once.

Q—In what position had she fallen? A—I do not know. Eugene, who had preceded me, had taken her head in his arms.

The witness then described his unsuccessful effort to communicate at once with Dr. C. A. Aldrich, the family physician, and the subsequent arrival of Dr. Margaret Levick, whom the telephone operator at the Winnetka exchange had summoned. Dr. Levick told him, he said, that his wife's wound was mortal—a statement that Dr. Aldrich, who arrived shortly, confirmed.

Mr. Black described his wife's removal to the Evanston hospital, where, following an operation performed by Dr. Aldrich and Dr. Charles J. Swan, 1518 Hinman avenue, Evanston, she died at 10 o'clock.

Failed to Observe.
Q—When you entered the basement do you recall the position of the gun with respect to your wife's body? A—No, I don't. I was so exercised about her condition that I do not think I noticed it.

Q—Where was Padre when you arrived home? A—On the first floor, I believe. He opened the door for me, as I recall it.

Q—Did he mention having heard shots fired in the basement? A—I think not.

Q—What time did the butler leave the house? A—A few minutes before 5 o'clock.

Q—So his cousin was alone with your wife in the house about fifteen or twenty minutes? A—Yes.

Q—Now, do you recall seeing a gun near your wife when you entered the basement? A—Yes.

Q—In what position was it. A—I do not remember.

Q—Well, was it in her hands? A—No.

Q—Across her body? A—No.

Q—Well, where was it? A—It must have been on the floor. I can't remember. I tell you I was so excited I did not see all those details clearly, but it must have been on the floor.

Q—Had your wife ever made a threat of suicide. A—No.

Q—Had she been melancholy? A—No; she was in the best of spirits when I left home, and had been for months.

Q—Your family relations were pleasant? A—Ideal.

Q—And your wife had no enemies? A—She was loved by every one.

Q—What explanation have you to offer of her death? A—She was in the habit of shooting at the target in the basement. Sometimes she shot alone; sometimes Eugene was with her, sometimes both Eugene and myself. The rifle was defective. I think she was killed by accident.

Butler Testifies.
Macabrey, the next witness, said he was 25 years old, single, a graduate of the Coyne Trade school in Chicago, and had been in the United States four years. Mr. and Mrs. Black, he asserted, had treated him more as a son than as an employee.

Q—What happened at the house yesterday afternoon? A—Mrs. Black went to her room about 2:30 o'clock and locked the door. I left with the motor about 4:55. I didn't see Mrs. Black again. My cousin had meant, while I was away, to go to my room to repair some furniture. When I got back we stood talking in the kitchen.

Q—Did you hear any shots? A—Yes, in the basement—two or three.

Didn't See Mrs. Black.
Q—When you passed through the basement on your way from the garage to the kitchen, did you see Mrs. Black? A—No. She must have been behind the partition, though she might have got into the cellar by walking around the outside of the house and entering, as I did, through the garage. The door was unlocked.

Q—What was her position when you found her shot? A—She was partly upright, against a table.

Q—Where was the rifle? A—That is the question; I didn't see it. Sharp questioning failed to shake him in that statement.

Philippo Cousin A. Witness.
Tulo, who is 28, has been in the United States three years. He is employed at 660 Irving Park boulevard, Chicago, but worked in the Black residence for about three months before Macabrey was employed. He said he arrived at the house at 2 o'clock and was certain that Mrs. Black was in her room at 4:30.

Q—How do you know? A—Some one called by phone, and she inquired who it was. But the person had obtained the wrong number. I went to my cousin's room and returned downstairs about 5:10 o'clock.

A target was introduced in evidence into which three shots had been fired. Chief Peterson said he found it fastened in place. A fork also was made an exhibit in the case. Macabrey declared it was used to flip cartridges from the rifle after the ejector was lost.

Dr. Aldrich and Swan described the operation they performed on Mrs. Black's brain.

The inquest was continued until next Thursday.

Friends Doubt Suicide.
Mrs. Black's friends stated yesterday that she had suffered of late from headaches and noises in the head.

"She was lonely, too," said one of them, "because her husband was required to take frequent business trips. Apart from that fact, their home life was ideal. If Mrs. Black did not die accidentally I am at a loss to understand her end. She was a pronounced fatalist. 'I have lived and enjoyed life to the fullest,' she told me once, and I hope I shall live many years more."

"She was a woman of unusually good education—spoke four or five languages and had traveled in Italy, Germany, and Austria. She also was highly individualistic, a remarkable conversationalist, and her gowns were the envy of all of us. I cannot understand why she should wish to kill herself."

Daughter Recently Married.
Mrs. Black and her husband had one child—a daughter, Charlotte Alice Black—who was married to Louis Livingston, son of Mrs. Robert C. Livingston of New York and Insp. L. J. in Christ church, Winnetka, June 22.

The wedding was one of the most fashionable of north shore events. The bride is now returning to Chicago from New York, where she and her husband went to make their home.

The body will be removed to Fort Madison or burial. A permit for interment was issued yesterday. Mr. Black said the departure would be made as soon as arrangements could be completed.

CANDLES, MOLTEN LEAD, GASOLINE, CHILD IS BURNED

Rose Cadie, 7 years old, daughter of Charles Cadie, 60 West Superior street, Oak Park, president of the Cadie Lumber company, 4825 West Division street, was seriously burned about the legs, face, and arms yesterday when half a gallon of gasoline was ignited by lead the girl and several other children had melted with candles.

Capt. William Walters of the Oak Park fire department, summoned by Mrs. G. G. Hadley, 328 North Taylor avenue, in whose yard the children were playing, wrapped a blanket around her, extinguishing the flames.

One of the children found a bottle containing the gasoline and spilled it near where the others were melting lead on a cement walk. The explosion followed. The child will recover, physicians said.

THE SOUL OF A ROOM

What do you do after dinner at your house? At our house we sit around the lamp and read aloud to each other. Or we play cards under the clear rays of the glowing light. Or, sometimes, we turn off all the electricity except the soft, rosy side lights and then sit and wait in the restful glow. But whatever we do at our house after dinner at night the thing that makes it a happy, charming scene is the light. And that is because lights are the center and soul of a room at night and ours are just right.

How are yours? Do they irritate you? Do they shine in your eyes or glimmer too much, or are the fixtures the fancy, brassy, ugly kind that look so ordinary? Don't you have a good reading lamp or soft colored shades? If you haven't, I'm sorry, because your home is by no means as pretty a place as it ought to be and can be, and your husband thinks so, too, though he may not like to say anything about it. Perhaps you think good looking lights cost a lot. You are wrong—they don't, if you go about getting them the right way. The Edison Company (the company you get your light from) has a fine arrangement for your benefit. They have a huge stock of perfectly irresistible, lovely lamps and chandeliers and side fixtures and things, and you can pick out the ones you like and have them put into your house by paying only one-twelfth of the price down. The rest of the cost is added to your lighting bill at the end of each month for the next twelve months, so that you don't really notice it at all. But you must get your new lights right off if you want to take advantage of this generous offer.

The New BIG-SIX

Beautiful in Design
Thoroughly Modern
Mechanically Right

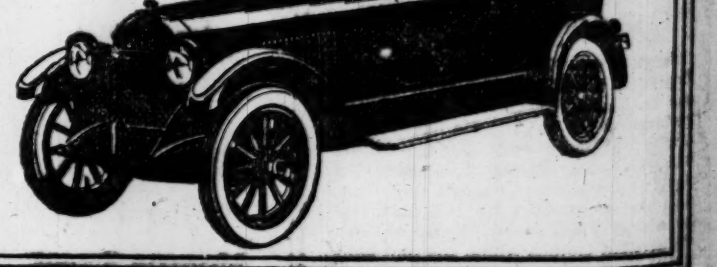

Note the harmonious design of body, fenders, radiator, lamps, and general outline of this New Seven-Passenger Six!

See how gracefully the curves of each are blended. Few indeed are the cars which match it in appearance, or in which the modern bevel-edge body (originated by Studebaker) has been so perfectly developed.

Its power-resources are marvelous. Its "touring range" is ample for ordinary driving; its "emergency range" gives express train speed and power. Yet this is really an economical car to run. Even its tire-economy is notable.

The thorough satisfaction of this car is evidenced by the thousands of letters from enthusiastic owners. Its finish, equipment and appointments are of the highest quality.

It is the only car at its price with cord tire equipment. Studebaker Sales Co. of Chicago

BELGIAN CAPTAIN, A MAN OF PARTS, JAILED AS FAKER

Jean L. F. Hoergaerden
Accused by Broker
of Swindle.

One side, please, for Capt. Jean L. F. Van Hoergaerden, son of the Marquis Van Hoergaerden, president of the National Bank of Belgium, wounded at Liege, late of the Belgian aviation service; later the British royal air force; still later husband of Claire Whitney, movie actress, and co-star with her in "To Hell with the Kaiser and the King." And after that the Peacock Alley fashion plate.

Having disposed of the lineage, etc., which, it may be explained, was supplied by the captain himself, we arrived at a new chapter in his picturesque career. The scene is a cell at the detective bureau, occupied by the captain. The complainant is a late friend, Raymond de Cayles, broker in all leases, living at 916 Sunnyside avenue.

Charge Confidence Game.

The charge is confidence game, Mr. De Cayles alleging that the captain portrayed his European connections so effectively that he (De Cayles) not only accepted a $5,000 draft from him on a London bank, upon which he advanced him various sums of money, but also consented to embark with the captain upon a $2,000,000 venture—the Illinois-Texas Oil company—which the captain agreed to finance and didn't. De Cayles says, he thereby lost $40,000 in forfeited options, De Cayles charges.

"I used to advance him spending money," said De Cayles. "He was constantly expecting a cablegram for $10,000 or $25,000. It never came. The London bank cabled me that the draft was worthless."

The captain first achieved publicity in Chicago last fall, when a check for $150 which he cashed at the Congress hotel was declared to be worthless. Mr. De Cayles says he reimbursed the hotel company. Soon after that the captain went to Canada, where he enlisted in the aviation service. He returned to Chicago about Jan. 8.

Met Through Broker.
De Cayles met him, he says, through John Hayes, a realty broker of the north side. Another Chicagoan with whom he made an impression was T. J. Friedlander, a wholesale clothier, living at 4416 Sheridan road. He told a good story, was a boon companion, and they liked him. Friedlander asked him about March 4:

"Show me your O. K."

So the captain escorted him to the police identification bureau, where Emmett Evans, finger print expert, compared his finger print with those on the passport from Belgium. He declared they were one and the same.

Captain Is Feisty.
"De Cayles is all wings," said the captain last night. "That old company would have gone through if he had only had patience. I had a friend on the story, who would have advanced me $200,000 as a starter. I'll smash De Cayles' nose when I get out."

There's a conspiracy to defame me, why, a motion picture magazine published my picture this month as 'Eugene Sutherland,' the movie actor, and inscribed it with 'who was arrested in the Congress hotel.' I am sitting them for $100,000. I'm just what I say I am. My father lent the Belgian government 72,000,000 francs to fight the Germans."

Anyway, the captain's in. And last night he couldn't obtain bonds.

BLANQUET JOINS CARRANZA FOES; SAFE IN MEXICO

Old Huerta Lieutenant
Had Been Hiding in Brooklyn.

New York, April 3.—Gen. Aurelio Blanquet has landed in Mexico to command a revolutionary movement against the Carranza government, according to an announcement made here today by Robert Gayon, Blanquet's secretary.

Gayon declared that Blanquet sailed from New York for Havana Jan. 6 and landed in Mexico after a voyage from the West Indian port on March 14. The trip from Cuba to Mexico was made in the motor sloop La Providencia, which ran the blockade of Mexican patrol boats.

The landing was made near Vera Cruz, according to Gayon, and Blanquet then went to headquarters of Gen. Felix Diaz, who is also concerned in the revolutionary movement against Carranza.

Gayon said the Diaz-Blanquet forces consisted of 40,000 men.

Fled with Huerta.

Gen. Blanquet is 72 years old and holds the rank of field marshal in the Mexican army. He long has been known as a statesman of the conservative type, representing the Mexican landholding class.

Blanquet, who was minister of war under Huerta from February, 1913, until 1914, when Carranza overthrew the government, fled with his chief to Madrid, Spain, into exile. A year later he left Madrid and came to Brooklyn, N. Y., with his family.

In 1903 at the age of 15, Blanquet was a member of the republican army which undertook operations against Emperor Maximilian.

State Department Unconcerned.
Washington, D. C., April 3.—Notice of the arrival in Mexico of Gen. Blanquet, now avowedly second in command in the Felix Diaz revolutionary movement, was received today at the state department. Officials said no attention would be given the matter, since it was one to be dealt with by the government of Mexico recognized by the United States.

Ambassador Bonillas said today the government of Mexico was fully capable of dealing with the revolutionists.

"The Mexican government would rather have these and other revolutionists in Mexico than out of it," the ambassador said. "When they are out of the country there are constantly plotting and trying to get assistance for their schemes. Once they get into Mexico, however, the government is able to deal with them in an appropriate manner."

SEES MYSTERY IN JILT OF FIANCE BY OAK PARK GIRL

When Ruth Allan of Oak Park jilted Edward M. Woodward Jr. of Worcester, Mass., to marry Private Harold Sampson last Saturday she "surprised" her mother, Mrs. Joseph B. Allan, prominent Oak Park clubwoman. But "surprise" is only a mild term for the effect the wedding had on young Woodward's father, who received the news in Worcester yesterday in a letter from Mrs. Allan.

"Why, she even had tried on the bridal gown and orange blossoms," said Mr. Woodward, according to a dispatch to THE TRIBUNE. "I can't understand it. Some mysterious influence was brought to bear."

Mr. Woodward expressed himself as keenly resentful of the loss of his son's bride that was to have been.

Meanwhile the pretty little bungalow, the motor car, and other luxuries that the wealthy Mr. Woodward had provided for his son's bride are empty and idle in Massachusetts, while Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sampson are enjoying a little honeymoon in Wisconsin.

TO HONOR EVERY ONE OF HER WARRIORS

May 3 to Be Day of Tribute to All Who Have Seen Service.

Each year this program over, buddies of Chicago. It is "General Joy Order No. 1" which is to cover activities on all sides of the city of Chicago in her honor. The day of tribute to be held May 3 is a tribute to every fighting man who has returned from service overseas, in the air and in the land training camps.

At 10 o'clock—Closing down of business for the day. At 11 o'clock people will be allowed to participate in the home-coming ceremony.

At 12 o'clock—White Sox-Detroit ball game in Comiskey park. All men in the city are admitted free and special trains, buses, and automobiles provided for every wounded soldier who can be taken to the big service game of the day.

At 1 o'clock—Home-coming, luncheon, entertainment, and dances to open in the city. At 2 o'clock—Big pavement dance under the arches along three blocks in Chicago avenue, open to all returned fighting men and their friends, with no limit specified.

Additional community entertainment throughout Chicago and suburbs with fighting men the guests of honor.

And that is only the first draft of a five-hour day schedule which was approved yesterday by the special committee of the Chicago welcoming committee which met to start the municipal roll for the three big days of the year. A second honor day, with entirely different from the first, will be held July 4, and another day when it is believed that all Chicago fighting men will have returned to the city.

Still a Good Fund.

Capt. Myron P. Adams of the Fort Sheridan association, L. A. Calvin of the patriotic community council, and Capt. T. Lee of the war camp community service, constitute the Honor of committee whose report and tentative program was given official approval. They were authorized to carry out all details of the plan and to act for the city committee in completing arrangements.

Bonds Offered by I. W. W. Unsatisfactory to U. S.

At the release of the thirty-seven I. W. W. who were ordered released and bailed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Evans, Baker, and Judge Pitkin, Wednesday, were accepted by the government yesterday.

It became known bonds for one of the leaders of the "gangs" were offered but not accepted. They covered bail of $10,000 and were said to have been for the release of "Big Bill" Haywood.

HONORED

Northwestern Theologian Called to City Temple, London.

Dr. Lynn Harold Hough

Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, head of the department of historical theology, Northwestern university, has accepted a call to fill the pulpit of City Temple, London, during August. City Temple is the most famous preaching place in the English speaking world.

The pulpit will be made vacant during this period by the coming of the pastor, Dr. R. J. Campbell, to deliver a lecture series on "Preaching" at Yale university.

Besides preaching at City Temple Dr. Hough will make a speaking tour of the British Isles, which is being arranged by Dr. John Kelman, pastor of famous Free St. George's, Edinburgh.

Dr. Hough spent three months in Great Britain last fall interpreting the war spirit of America. His call to City Temple was extended by the committee on inter-pulpit exchange between America and Great Britain.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT SLEW SCHUTTLE BOY, IS VERDICT

Richard Schuttler, 14 year old son of Peter Schuttler, president of the vehicle manufacturing company which bears his name, came to his death as the result of an accidental shot fired from a revolver he was examining in the bathroom of the Schuttler home, 508 Fulton parkway, Wednesday, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury which conducted an inquest yesterday.

Young Schuttler, who was home on a vacation from the Howe Military academy at Lima, Ind., was found with a bullet wound in his right temple Wednesday when the family went to call him to breakfast. He died yesterday morning at Grant hospital without regaining consciousness.

SEEK SOLDIER'S WIDOW.

In a letter received from Mrs. M. E. Elliott, 8222 Quinn avenue, Cleveland, O., the Chicago police were asked to search for Mrs. Anna B. Elliott, formerly of Cleveland, her husband, Hugh Elliott, was killed in France and the insurance cannot be settled without the signature of Mrs. Elliott.

230 FACTORIES JOIN SCHOOLS TO MAKE AMERICANS

Two hundred and thirty industrial plants have enlisted with the Chicago public schools in their campaign to make the "sixth German city of the world" American. Classes in English were well under way in the plants yesterday, and employers further cooperated in the movement by posting notices of community center courses in schools nearest their factories.

W. F. McNeil of the Association of Commerce announced that ninety-three new industrial firms have fitted up schoolrooms in their plants and have secured English teachers in the last month from among board of education forces.

On another "American front" in Chicago five new community centers were put in operation yesterday by the school extension committee. The new centers, making a total of fifty-four now operating, were established in the Clay, Clearing, Greger, Eberhart, and Warren schools. In addition, the board committee on playgrounds recommended that fourteen gymnasiums be opened in conjunction with outdoor playgrounds and community centers.

Capt. Yadelson, Medical Corps, Home from War

Capt. Albert B. Yadelson, medical corps, returned to Chicago yesterday after a year's service in hospitals overseas. He was assigned to the hospital at La Fausche, where thousands of nervous and mental cases were brought in from divisions participating in the Argonne offensive.

Capt. Yadelson was designated as a neuro-psychiatrist. His home address is 6153 South Park avenue. He has offices in the Heyworth building.

Police Seek Father as Kidnap of Children

Detectives are looking for Frank Shuman, 47, who they allege, has kidnaped his two children. Shuman formerly was head of the Frank Shuman company, 168 North Michigan avenue, manufacturers of labels and tags. Charles P. Schwartz, attorney for Mrs. Shuman, charges he disposed of his stock in the company, amounting to $40,000, and disappeared with the children, and that his manager, Edward Lang, is now in charge. Mrs. Shuman obtained a divorce March 31 in Judge Hopkins' court. She has begun suit for an accounting of the property and is said to be destitute.

FAHERTY WANTS $100,000,000 TO IMPROVE THE CITY

Wider Streets and Subways Included in Plan for Many Jobs.

M. J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, wants the city to have authority to issue $100,000,000 in bonds for public improvements. A few weeks ago the city council adopted a resolution asking that a bill be sent to the legislature giving the city the power to issue bonds up to 5 per cent of the full value of real estate in the city, instead of the assessed value, which is one-third the real value. The city is now up to its limit for bonded indebtedness.

"We need a bond issue of about $15,000,000 to carry out some of the improvements recommended by the Chicago plan commission," said Mr. Faherty. "Why stop at this? Let us lay out a construction program that means a whole lot."

Favors Wider Streets.

"Western avenue ought to be widened. Ashland avenue and Robey street should be straightened and made through thoroughfares. Western avenue could be made one of the greatest thoroughfares in the city. Now it has twenty-three different widths.

"The public should pay about $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 of this cost and issue bonds for about $15,000,000.

"We ought to have a new sewer system. What we are doing now is only patching up an old system. We should have a new system adequate to care for a city of 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 population.

$50,000,000 for Sewers.

"Such a system would cost $50,000,000. We could build a subway system at the same time and save money."

Mr. Faherty favors building a subway system by a special assessment plan, with the city's traction fund paying part of the cost. He calls it a lower level system of streets. So far the property owners have declared against the plan.

"Boost and build," said Mr. Faherty. "That should be the city's slogan."

Mr. Faherty said every dollar spent for public improvements adds $2 to the value of real estate. He said the legislature ought to grant the enabling legislation, as 80 per cent of the money would be spent for labor.

HOYNE TO KEEP UP FIGHT, HE TELLS FRIENDS

State's Attorney Hoyne left Chicago yesterday to recuperate from the mayoralty campaign. Before leaving he issued the following statement:

"I wish to thank the loyal men and women who gave so freely of their time and energy in the independent fight. Especially I wish to thank James F. Agar, chairman of the campaign committee, and Mrs. Helen Danek, chairman of the woman's committee, and the other splendid men and women who tried to rescue Chicago from the bipartisan combination which has throttled its development and oppressed it with taxation."

"There seems little doubt that the private utility corporations and their financial allies have won."

"I have no means of forecasting the final result as between the two machine candidates. I hope that the successful one may experience some change of heart and independence."

"So far as I am concerned, I wish to assure my associates and supporters in the great independent movement for honest government and a free Chicago that I am not faint hearted and will not abandon the fight because of a temporary setback."

SWITCHMAN KILLED.

James C. Monahan, 221 North Avenue, a switchman, was killed early yesterday in the yards of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad at North Crawford avenue and West Hinkle street.

He was struck by a freight car while crossing the tracks.

His body was taken to the hospital.

MAYOR PLANS M. V. L. INQUIRY BY GRAND JURY

Aid Confers with Acting State's Attorney on Quiz.

help I asked for would bring into the city treasury between $80,000 and $100,000 a year besides protecting us against explosions. The finance committee would not give us these additional men. Why should I waste my time talking to such a committee? In my opinion I can do more good remaining in my office and working on other constructive matters that we can put through, despite the handicap of a Municipal Voters' league that bends its efforts to opposing the mayor.

Aldermen not Free.

"I believe most of this opposition to my efforts to work with the council is because the aldermen are not free to cast their votes as their consciences dictate, but fear the Municipal Voters' league will destroy them politically when they are candidates for reelection. If they do not resign before the threats of the league."

"When the people of Chicago really realize that in their council chamber sits a paid employe of the Municipal Voters' league who keeps tab on every roll call, every vote, every speech of every alderman throughout the year for the purpose of destroying all who do not take orders from the league, they will rise up and demand that it be kicked out."

"This so-called league that seeks to destroy men politically who do not carry out its mandates refuses to publish the names of its officers and members or tell where it gets its money or how it spends it."

With Utility Corporation.

"I have followed the league's work for some time and invariably I have found that usually the men it recommends for the council are men who are with the public service corporations."

"I want our people to distinctly understand that I consider the most dangerous thing in our form of government is interference on the part of the executive branch with the legislative branch. I want nothing to do with the reorganization of the council. I do not care to suggest or dictate any committee or any chairman of any committee. That is a duty the council itself should assume."

"It should organize in the council chamber, with the galleries open to the public. It should not go outside the state to organize, or delegate its authority to organize to a select committee to go outside the state and thereby escape jurisdiction of the criminal laws of the state."

"It is important that the public should understand how the league works in the council, through the committees it signs up the council in advance to support. Take the finance committee, for instance. Half a dozen men, under the league orders, sit to Florida or some other southern state. They select the members of the new finance committee which the council, under the league rule, is pledged to confirm. The council has nothing to do with it—six or eight men control the naming of all the committees."

"In the old council the finance committee, controlled through the influence of the league, appropriated nearly $300,000 for Donald Richberg for expenses in the gas litigation which he loses and then that same committee sits off more than $750,000 needed for cleaning streets and alleys. The city is short of funds, but not when Richberg, a leaguer, wants money.

"Do you know why the finance committee did these things? I believe it is done on purpose because the Municipal Voters' league can't give the mayor orders."

"I believe this same league, acting for interests that are not always the people's interests, deliberately sets out in advance to tamper with the efficiency of my administration. That is what I resent."

"I don't expect the committee to do the impossible, especially the finance committee, but the minute the city council and its committees show by their acts they are free from this sinister influence the mayor's door will be open. I am only too anxious to join hands with them when I believe they are sincere and voting as free men."

Aldermen would aid Mayor. "I know there are many aldermen who want to do right, who, freed from this league influence and realizing they would not be destroyed, would stand up like men, vote as free men, as their consciences dictate, and would join hands with the mayor to rid Chicago of this vicious institution."

"The city council of Chicago is the only legislative body in the world that goes outside of its county or its state to join in an organization that is to be dictated to by an outside influence. What would our people say if the congress of the United States went to Canada to perfect its organization."

Reasons for Clash.

"You want to know why there has not been peace and cooperation between the mayor and the city council? The M. V. L. is the answer. The interests behind the M. V. L. are opposed to William Hale Thompson because they can't dictate to him. They are willing to destroy the efficiency of the administration, to hamper the mayor at every turn, to hurt Chicago—because they hate Thompson."

All the mayor would say on the talk of a grand jury investigation was this: "I have asked the corporation counsel for an opinion as to whether a prosecution of the Municipal Voters' league for criminal conspiracy—conspiracy in Florida to control the council matters—would lie. The corporation counsel has not replied to my request."

25TH WARD POLL OFFICIALS FACE FRAUD INQUIRY

Judge Scully Demands Explanation of Open Ballot Box.

Three women and one man, judges and clerks of election in the Seventeenth precinct of the Twenty-fifth ward, will be called before County Judge Scully this morning to answer charges that they permitted a ballot box to be opened and ballots removed therefrom Tuesday before the closing of the polls. Judge Scully last night ordered a thorough investigation.

The inquiry by Judge Scully came at the top of the announcement that the grand jury had indicted five judges and clerks of election in the Thirty-ninth precinct of the First ward for vote frauds said to have been committed at the February primary.

A partial investigation of the charges against the Twenty-fifth ward officials has already been made by William D. Scully, head of the fraud bureau in the election commissioner's office. He told of the result yesterday.

School Teachers Witnesses.

"The polling place in the Seventeenth precinct was in the Pierce public school at 1623 Gregory avenue," he said. "Three teachers who had occasion to enter the room told an investigator I sent out that they had seen a number of marked or folded ballots in a kitchenette off of the polling place."

Mrs. Hannah T. Hanlon, 644 Briar place and Mrs. A. Gilman, both teachers, told of seeing the ballots in the kitchenette when they entered the polling room.

Judge Scully was reached over the telephone at his home last night and said that he had no heard of the case yet.

"Those clerks and judges in the Twenty-fifth ward are a pretty intelligent set of people and they ought to know that they could not open the ballot box until after the polls close," he said. "I am going to send out and have them brought in tomorrow. If the box was filled they knew that we could have rushed them another way. Why, it is a penitentiary offense to open a box and take out the ballots that way."

"I will have that case investigated and find out why those ballots were taken out."

Five Are Indicted.

The five election officials indicted are Harold W. Mitchell, William Conner, and Robert Buckner, judges, and William H. Schroeder and Solomon Van Uin, clerks of election. Joseph Friedman, Democratic precinct captain, is also named in the indictment.

According to Assistant State's Attorney John E. Owens and John Pryzbil, a number of the ballots introduced as evidence before the grand

THIEF CATCHER

Woman Disproves Ancient Idea That She Must Always Be Safeguarded.

Mrs. Oliver T. Martin

Among us mortals the impression has long been prevalent that woman—dainty, defenseless woman—was created solely for ornamental purposes for the cloistered security of the home. She was considered a necessary adjunct of the apartment, akin to the in-door bed, the disappearing ironing board, and other built-in fixtures.

And now along comes Mrs. Oliver T. Martin of 364 East Fifty-eighth street with a six-shooter in her right and a hatpin in her left and utterly confutes us, the while arresting two bold, bad burglars.

Edward Sandler, 4524 South Michigan boulevard, and Charles Drayton, 213 East Forty-third street, the men captured, were booked at the Wabash avenue station last night on charges of burglary when Attorney T. H. Mercer, 105 North Clark street, threatened to sue for a writ of habeas corpus.

Jury substantiated the claim of the Carey watchmen that the burglars had been made on ballots marked for Thomas Carey and the mark placed before Robert M. Switzer's name.

At the request of the grand jurors themselves, Judge Kavanagh continued the inquest into a special grand jury to investigate other alleged vote frauds. The members of the grand jury will probably meet early next week to make preparations for a further inquiry.

WOMEN'S G. O. P. CLUB SLUMBERS WHILE BILL RUNS

"Lays Low" to Avoid Backing Mayor, Member Says.

BY LUCY CALHOUN.

Hear ye! Hear ye! The lost is found. The great mystery of the disappearing woman's club is solved and the Republican Women's Association of Illinois will have a meeting soon. Not lost, strayed, or stolen, the members say, merely laying low until municipal politics was out of the way.

"You see, we did not want to support Thompson," one of the members explained, in accounting for the quiet state of the club. "and yet he was running on the Republican ticket. What could we do? We just decided to do nothing until the city campaign was over and we could turn our attention to state and national affairs."

Mrs. W. S. Severin, president of the association, announced yesterday that although board meetings had been held during the past year, there had been no general meeting of the club. "We decided to drop politics during the war," she explained, "and our various members have been working through their other affiliations. We did not care to take part in the recent Thompson campaign and there has been no work in municipal campaigning except that we worked for Judge Olson until it was impossible to work any longer. Now the meetings will be resumed and we are ready to work on state and national campaigns. The Republican Women's Association of Illinois is affiliated, Mrs. Severin states, with a national association of Republican women."

Here Are Juniors' and Girls' New Spring Clothes

EVERY little girl—and every big one to seventeen—who has been waiting to select her Spring outfit will find this Section ready for her visit these days. And parents who are interested in choosing from values of a really exceptional nature will wish to take advantage of the following specially priced offerings.

Special—

Girls' Good Taffeta Frocks—$15

The taffeta is really a surprisingly heavy, nice quality. The style is charming in its girlish simplicity, with a white crepe Georgette frill outlining the round neck, edged with a band of the taffeta. Many colors, including several desirable blues. An exceptional value. Sizes 6 to 14.

France—Paris, in fact—sends the adorable little Frock of dotted Swiss, hand-scalloped and eyelet-embroidered on batiste yoke, front panel and cuffs. At top of group. Size 5, $18.50.

From a maker in London comes the quaint white dimity Smock, hand-stitched in color. Sizes 2 to 6; 6 to 14, $11.75.

For Wee Girls and Boys

THE styles are so altogether lovely that they send one's thoughts to all the little children one knows—if one has none of one's own to buy for—in order to have an excuse for selecting such exquisite and wearable clothes.

"Daisy" Frocks

are made of fine dotted Swiss, strewn here and there on tucks and hem with hand-embroidered yellow daisies.

Tinted Dimities

sun yellow, orchid, blue, rose, for example, are irresistible—made of the imported dimity, smocked in color.

Dainty Organdies

greens in cool tints, lovely lavender-yes, even babies are wearing these—white, blue, rose, yellow—a Spring garden of loveliness, relieved with white scalloped collars or sashes.

White Voiles—Color Trimmed
Simple white voile Frocks, sizes 2 to 6, are stitched in color and have big butterfly sashes of the color. Only $3.50!

Fine White Creepers
Satin corded white madras, and fine-striped white dimity are the dainty fabrics employed in these amply-cut Creepers which come in sizes: 6 months, 1 year and 2 years. $1.50, $1.95.

Special—

Serge and Velour Coats—$22.50

There are two good styles, one of serge being trimmed with a circular collar and cuffs of rose, green or tan wool jersey, braid trimmed; and the other of wool velour, raglan-sleeved and made with hand-piped buttonholes. Both these styles have yoke-linings and are very desirable qualities, ideal for Spring wear. 6 to 14.

Juniors' and Girls' "Dress" Clothes

DISTINCTIVE models, of which Mothers will find only one or two of a style, are also a feature of the Juvenile Floor's offerings.

A Taffeta Frock—sketched below at the left, of exquisite quality, is trimmed with wee flutings of the taffeta retained beneath rose-colored wool stitching, on short sleeves and skirt. Color-embroidered wool roses are also used for ornament. $37.50. Other styles, $15 up.

A Hooded Cape—quite like that made for little Miss "Red Riding Hood" except that it is blue in color, lined on shirred hood and on the cape with rich, satin-plaided silk. Below at right, $40. Other Capes, 6 to 16 year sizes, $16.75 up.

Sailor Blouses, Skirts and Coats from Bond Street

THE same famous London maker who supplies our Boys' Own Room with the characteristic "Middy" suits, is now supplying us with girls' clothes of the same styles and sturdy fabrics.

Fourth Floor, North Room.

Only Paris Could Evolve Such Lovely Frocks, Bonnets and Hats!

YOU will see them this week on the display case in front of the elevators at the entrance to the Infants' Wear Section. Adorable little hand-embroidered, real-lace-trimmed Bonnets, and Lingerie Hats mounted over silk are having much demand these days. Happy the little maid-ens who begin life with such exquisitely made things!

Color-striped—that is with colored voile panels set in horizontally or vertically—come white voile Frocks from Paris, feather-stitched and simply made. Beautiful Easter gifts for Baby might be chosen here.

Fourth Floor, North Room.

The Juvenile Floor Launches New Modes

THIS is indeed the children's age. When children in older times were clad in the same styles as their elders, with rich stuffs and stiff waists, to discourage romping and healthful exercise, today their clothes are designed primarily for comfort and ease. In the Spring Exposition the most beautiful things surrender not a single degree of practicability or comfort to beauty. And yet they are beautiful—to a degree best appreciated by viewing the present showings on the children's own floor—the Fourth.

Quaint Ways of Children's Clothes of Earlier Times

"The dress of all young children in families of estate was cumbersome to a degree. There exists today a warrant for the purchase of clothing for Mary Tudor, Sister of Henry VIII., when she was a sportive, wilful, naughty little child of four. She wore such unwieldy ugly guise as this: kirtles of heavy damask and black satin; gowns of green and crimson striped velvet edged with purple tinsel, which must have been hideous. All were lined with heavy black buckram."

"I Have Seen Garments Worn by grown princesses of the Eighteenth Century, whereof the rich brocade bodices were lined with common, heavy fabric, usually a stiff linen; and the sewing was done with thread as coarse as shoe-thread, often homespun. This, too, when the sleeve and neck-ruffles would be of needlework so exquisite that it could not be rivalled in execution today."

"Childish Dress Reflected the Dress of Their Elders often closely imitating it. Two very charming costumes were worn by two little children of the province of South Carolina.

The Little Girl—Two Years Old

a lovely child of French features, and French daintiness of dress, albeit a bright yellow-brocaded satin would seem rather gorgeous attire for a girl of her years. The boy is her kinsman... about five years old. He wore what might be termed a frock with spreading petticoats, which touched the ground... a tight-fitting, trim waistcoat with silver buttons and lace, and befringed coat with broad cuffs and wrist ruffles, turned over revers, and narrow linen collar."

From the Boys' Own Room

Boys' Tub Suits Scores of Styles and Colors, $3.45 and upwards

At $5 one finds yellow chambrays charmingly combined with trousers and collar of brown or green chambray. Also yellow Devonshire cloth, trimmed with white scalloped, embroidered collar and cuffs. They close at the front with scalloped edges.

Yellow Devonshire cloth, effectively trimmed with black braid, navy blue collar and cuffs and black tie, is another smart choice at $5.50. White Suits, same style, $4.25.

Charmingly frill collared and cuffed Suits for small boys are made of fine blue, pink, tan or white repp, double breasted, $6.

Sailor Suits from London Town are here in great new assortments of white drill and blue serges.

Boys' Own Room, Juvenile Floor, the Fourth, Middle.

ALL the gladness of the Easter season seems expressed in this well-equipped Room for Boys' Clothing. The daisy plants abound throughout the Section are no more bright and charming than the new, carefully-chosen clothes.

School Suits—Well-tailored, $14.75 and up

Some with one pair, some with two pair trousers. These are substantially tailored of blue, brown and gray mixtures, some tweeds, others flecked wool chevrons with red or green. Sizes 7 to 13 years.

Suits of Superlative Quality Tailored with extreme care, made of the finest obtainable wools, lined with finest mohairs, with silk sleeve lining, and made with fitted coats and cuffed trousers which fit into the hosiery, come the finest obtainable Suits for boys, $35 and up. One is pictured at the center of the group at the lower left.

Naval Reefers—$15 to $20 Made of fine navy serge, with detachable collars of dark blue linen, white braid trimmed, these little Spring Topcoats are in very good style, and the delight of all small boys. One is pictured at the center of the group at the upper left. Sizes 2½ to 10.

The Best-Ever Assortment of Wash Suits

Millinery Exclusively for Six to Sixteen

EVEN in this division of Spring Hats, the influence of ancient styles can be discovered in certain bonnet-like styles for little Miss Six-to-Eight, and in the Directorate Shapes for twelve-to-sixteen.

Beautiful Leghorns Merit Special Attention

For the Miss in her teens there are broad, drooping brims, in Hats of the natural yellow tint, trimmed with graceful ribbon streamers, bows and bands. On certain of these, ostrich tips appear. On others, come sprays of Spring and Summer flowers. Another division of leghorn Hats takes trimmings of filmy shirrings of chiffons or nets, and poke bonnet shapes. Some are topped with navy or black taffeta and reveal the leghorn braid only in the underbrims.

Priced: $13.75 to $22.50.

Juvenile Floor, the Fourth, North.

Dainty White and Tinted Fabric Hats

Exquisite in their daintiness are these Hats, assembled in a special case, for girls of six to twelve years. Drooping brims and poke bonnet styles are included, made of white mill, beautiful embroideries, laces, fancy braids, and Georgette crepes. Tinted ribbons form bands or bows, or flowers occasionally add to their charm. Surely it will be a pleasurable experience to select a little girl's Spring Hat from such a wealth of beautiful styles! Wide choice is offered here now: $6.75 to $18.75.

PRICE SCHEDULE BREACH SHOWS NO ABATEMENT

Hines and the Industrial Board Are Still Far Apart.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., April 3.—(Special.)—The clash between the industrial board of the department of commerce and the railroad administration became even more pronounced today when it was made known that other government departments are supporting the position taken by Director General Hines.

Secretary of the Treasury Glass, it was learned, holds with Mr. Hines that the industrial board has exceeded its prerogatives in attempting to force the railroad administration to make purchases of steel rails and other commodities at specified prices.

Plain Question of Policy.
The issue, as it is now more clearly defined, involves the whole policy of the board. It is contended by Mr. Hines that the board was designed to be an intermediary between basic industries and government departments, the intention being that prices should be made sufficiently attractive to induce the government to buy freely and thereby influence the public to do likewise. Instead of that Mr. Hines claims that the board has set itself up as an arbitrator and a price fixing body.

Mr. Hines' position is that the board failed to accomplish its legitimate purpose when the steel prices were not sufficiently attractive to suit the railroad administration and that the board should not have approved the prices.

Conference Again Today.
The industrial board and representatives of the railroad administration, including Mr. Hines, and some of the railroad purchasing agents probably will hold a conference tomorrow in accordance with the instructions of the conference of cabinet and other government officials yesterday that the whole subject should be "recommitted to the board."

That an agreement will be reached seems hopeless. The steel men, it was learned, are standing by the reduced price scale and refuse to quote any lower figures on rails. The railroad administration is now buying select rails on the basis of old contracts at about $40 a ton, as against the $45 and $47 price fixed in the new scale.

Another development today was the formal action by the southern pine organization at New Orleans refusing to continue negotiations with the board looking toward a cut in prices.

Bank Employees to Honor Man 25 Years in Service

Falter of Greengbaum Sons Bank and Trust company will be the guest of eighty members of the bank's force at a dinner and dance tomorrow evening in the Lumbermen's club. Exchange building. Walter J. Greengbaum, cashier, and John G. Greengbaum, assistant cashier, will have charge of the cotton to follow the dinner.

1,000 JOBS AS MAILMEN ARE OPEN TO YANKS

Temporary Carriers Who Fail in Tests Will Be Replaced.

One thousand "life" jobs are open at the postoffice to Chicago's returned fighting men. Tossing hand grenades and carrying an army pack may require more skill and endurance than throwing mail and wearing the postal bag, but the pay for the latter is better.

Peter Newton, secretary of the seventh civil service district, has a regiment of temporary appointees of clerks and carriers in Chicago who will be replaced by applicants who pass the examinations. Temporary employees who are able to pass will be retained. Examinations are to be held every Monday morning. The salary starts at $1,000 with an annual increase of $100 until $1,400 is reached.

A Pertinent Query.
"Does Chicago look at reconstruction from the viewpoint of her returned fighting men?"

A doughboy home from front line service with the Prairie division asked the question yesterday of officials in the new "bureau of justice." It increased the determination of workers in the West Adams street headquarters to bring more personal contact between employers and service men seeking jobs.

New Movement Launched.
"The hardest boiled infantryman is coming home with a sneaking notion that somewhere he is going to fit into a job that will carry on the principles he has been soldiering for," he said. "And that's the only reason he's trying to get a better job for himself."

A new movement to meet this demand of returned fighters was launched yesterday by L. P. Putnam of the Chicago Y. M. C. A., who announced the early opening of a new vocational guidance bureau at 19 South La Salle street. Benjamin J. Rosenthal hopes to inaugurate a city wide readjustment of working forces through a campaign he has suggested to the Jewish Welfare board. The movement, among other vocational adjustments, will look to the reassignment of women in industry to give men's jobs to returned fighters.

P. L. Prentiss, federal director of the United States employment service, announced yesterday that 155 men can be used at once on farms in Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, and Michigan.

Club Moves to Make City Aviation Center of U. S.

The Chicago Aviation club announced its plans last night for active promotion of the air service. The ambition of the club includes Chicago as the aviation center of the United States, immediate purchase of an aviation field, purchase of the latest and fastest type of French machines. Competition of Chicago aviators for honors in the trans-Atlantic flight was discussed. A magazine devoted exclusively to the interest of aeronautics has been proposed. Among the speakers who pledged their support were Ald. Dorsey Crowe, Blaine J. Brickwood, United States consul to Venezuela; L. V. Blankman, aeronautics engineer of New York City, and Arthur Powlinson, a returned aviator.

SOCIETY GIRLS' STREET CABARET TO AID WAR LOAN

Noonday street cabarets with dozens of Chicago's prettiest debutantes as performers are to be a feature of the Victory Liberty loan campaign.

The special service squad, an organization of young women under the leadership of Miss Katherine Ingalls of the women's Liberty loan committee, originated the idea to help boost the coming loan. Members of the squad will appear in minstrel performances, plays, and sketches, as special acts at downtown theaters and at open air meetings which will be held on Michigan avenue during noon hours.

ILLINOIS HOUSE BODY BACKS BILL TO AID FIGHTERS

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—The house appropriations committee late today reported out with a favorable recommendation the bill of Representative Edwin C. Perkins of Lincoln, appropriating $500,000 for relief of Illinois soldiers and sailors. Under the provisions of the measure no soldier or sailor would be entitled to more than $100.

Amendments were added by the committee which would extend the scope of the bill to include dependents of needy soldiers, and would create a commission of three to administer the funds. The commission would consist of the governor, the secretary of state, and the adjutant general. The Perkins bill carries an emergency clause and would become effective at once on receiving 102 votes in the house and a two-thirds majority in the senate.

Dismal Election Contest.
By a vote of three to two the house elections committee late today dismissed the election contest case in which Thomas P. Devereux of Chicago was challenging the right of Representatives Maher and Mitchell, Democrats, and Representative Bippus, Republican, to seats in the house from the Twenty-first district.

Two primary election bills will be offered to the Illinois legislature by the special elections commission that has been studying conditions for the last eighteen months.

One bill will be substantially a repeal of the direct primary act, affecting all elective offices below United States senator and governor.

The other bill will include in the direct nominating system, all minor state offices. A provision for the nomination of congressmen and members of the legislature by direct primaries, probably will be in both bills.

Signs School Revenue Bill.
Gov. Lowden this afternoon signed the Hicks school revenue bill, permitting school boards to levy up to 4 per cent upon a vote of the people, and to use funds levied up to 3 per cent, the present legal limit, with greater latitude.

CHICAGO BAND OPENS DRIVE FOR 10,000 BACKERS

The Chicago Band association opened its campaign for 10,000 new memberships yesterday at a luncheon in the Hotel La Salle. The object is to raise money to make the Chicago band the greatest band in America.

The direction of the drive has been undertaken by Harry H. Merrick, chairman of the National Council of Defense for the Chicago district. Some of the objects of the band association, as outlined by Mr. Merrick, are:

To make it possible for the band to play at spring and fall music festivals with community singing; to play one or more concerts on every holiday; to play for delegates during large conventions; to play for returning soldiers; to play weekly concerts for wounded soldiers at Fort Sheridan, and to give twenty Sunday afternoon concerts beginning next month.

STATE FARMERS
JOIN IN FIGHT
ON BOLSHEVISM

Illinois farmers have started an organization to protect their interests and combat radical movements threatening to impair their pursuits. It became known yesterday. The Illinois Agricultural association, composed of state farmers, has opened offices in the Commonwealth Edison building, with D. O. Thompson in charge. Sixty counties, it was said, have sub-organizations with a total membership of 25,000. It is expected that the membership will reach 50,000. Harvey J. Sconce, a wealthy Vermillion county farmer, is president. Sconce is a University of Illinois graduate.

"The Illinois Agricultural association will not become a nonpartisan league or be controlled by bolsheviki," according to the platform announced yesterday.

CLUB WOMEN ASK
SEGREGATION OF ERRING SISTERS

Club women of Illinois are getting together to urge an appropriation to go with the new farm colony bill which the state welfare commission under Charles H. Thorpe is sponsoring and by which women offenders from the courts may be segregated, treated, and made self supporting.

For the feeble minded women and girls they are asking an appropriation of 770,000 for new buildings to be erected on the state land at Dixon, Ill. A mass meeting will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the east room of the La Salle hotel, to which all women interested in the subject are invited.

Products Are Distributed from Our Stock on the Immediate Delivery Basis.

These are the steel pulleys you will read about in this week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post, other general magazines and the trade paper of every industry.

Oneida Pulleys are designed and built in the shops of the Dodge Manufacturing Company. The Dodge organization stands back of the Oneida Pulley with the largest and most completely equipped factory of its kind in the world.

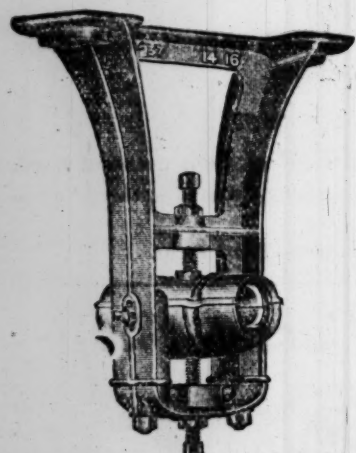

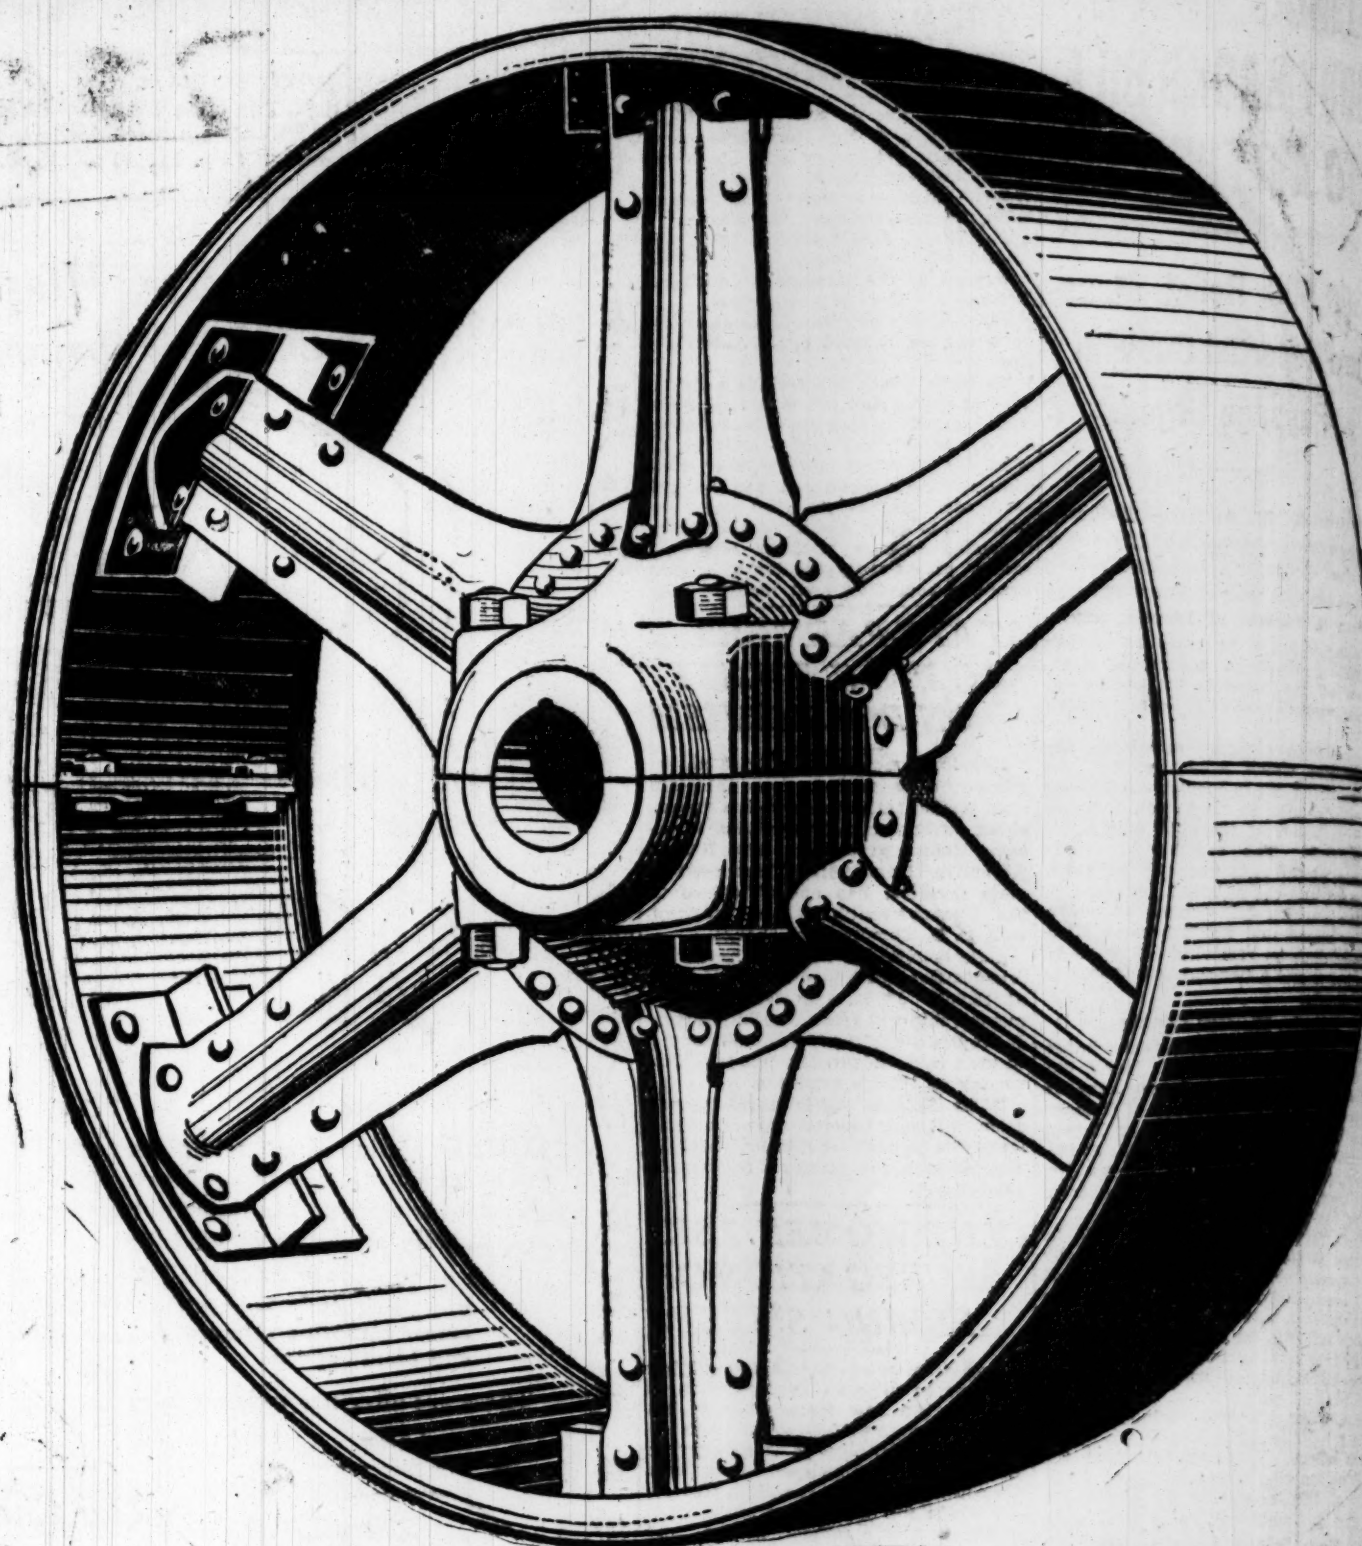

You may find that steel pulleys will give you better and more economical service in many parts of your plant than iron or wood pulleys.

If so, we will furnish you with steel pulleys that will give you effective, economical service—the kind of service that will bring you here again.

Oneida Steel Pulleys are the lightest steel pulleys made and will yet stand up under the most severe operating conditions.

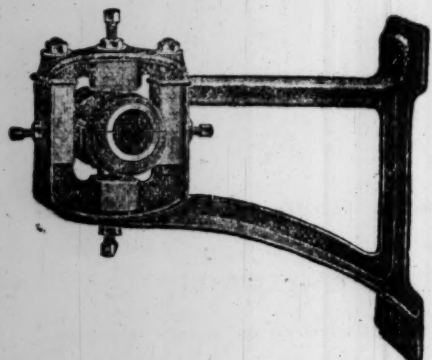

Oneida Steel Pulleys are built as large as 168 inches in diameter with 40 inch face. Hundreds of these large sizes are giving satisfactory service for main drive purposes, some of them carrying as high as 750 h. p.

Delivery from the Oneida factory of these large sizes can be made within seven days from the day you place your order.

Four-Point Drop Hanger With Duplex Ring Oiling Bearing

Adequate lubrication at all times is assured if the reservoir is drained and filled with fresh oil once or twice a year.

Four-Point Duplex Ring Oiling Extension Post Hanger

This hanger has a removable head, thus permitting the easy removal and installation of shafting.

Four-Point Duplex Ring Oiling Pillow Block

Side screws make accurate adjustment easy and, once adjusted, hold the shaft firmly in its original position.

Maxant Steel Shop Stool

Rigidly constructed of iron. Built for hard use in the shop.

Counter Shaft for Light Work

Equipped with tight and loose pulleys, shafting mechanism, hangers, etc. This type of counter shaft is very inexpensive and has been sold by us in considerable quantity for light work of standard nature.

Oneida Rivets Never Shear

Whenever rivets are used in Oneida Steel Pulleys the metals are countersunk, thus protecting the rivets from all shearing strain.

The CHICAGO Line

Duplex Ring Oiling Rigid Pillow Block

Heavy, substantial and adapted to the most severe service. Positive method of lubrication. Lined with high-grade babbitt which conforms to the shaft without heat.

Rigid Pillow Block

Ample strength for any service. Lined with high-grade babbitt. Bored and reamed to shaft size. Faced on end for collars.

"WHAT YOU WANT WHEN YOU WANT IT"

"What you want" is the tried and proven quality product that offers you the greatest value for your money. You will find that first of all in every power transmission appliance that we sell.

"When you want it" means immediate delivery and low cost delivery. Our stock of standard sizes is complete. We deliver by truck the same day the order is received.

In an emergency, when men are idle and production stopped, while repairs are being made, the speed laws are the only limit on the promptness with which we serve you.

We carry in stock iron, wood and steel pulleys, drop and post hangers, standard and ring oiling pillow blocks, compression flange and flexible couplings and the S-K-F ball bearing loose pulley, which is the finest mechanism of its type on the market.

It is impossible to illustrate on this page all of the appliances for the mechanical transmission of power that are contained in "THE CHICAGO LINE." Regardless of where you are located or how quick the delivery demanded, call on us for "quick service."

If you are installing direct drives in connection with buffing lathes, emery and disc grinding machines, fans, punches, presses, etc., you will want complete information on the Style S-K-F Ball Bearing Friction Clutch Pulley. This mechanism does away once and for all with countershafts; it will save power, save belts and save lubricants. The Ball Bearing Friction Clutch Pulley is simple in construction, requires less space on the shaft than any ordinary clutch and can be installed by the average shop mechanic.

It is guaranteed dust-proof and the lubricant chamber requires refilling but 2 to 4 times a year, according to operating conditions.

If you are building a new plant or changing over your present equipment from the manufacture of one product to another, or replacing worn or out-of-date equipment, put your transmission problems up to us. There is no charge for this service, and you may be sure of qualified advice, for we can furnish every recognized type of equipment on the market.

Make us responsible for the correct design, efficient operation and the continuous satisfaction of your entire plant equipment. We know our goods to be the best, and we are always glad to take the responsibility for their operation when installed according to our engineering advice.

When the quality of the "CHICAGO LINE" is known, it is usually specified by both buyer and seller. The owner of an installation furnished by us is always ready to admit triple value for his money in the quality of product, correctness of engineering suggestion and the interchangeability of units from one use to another.

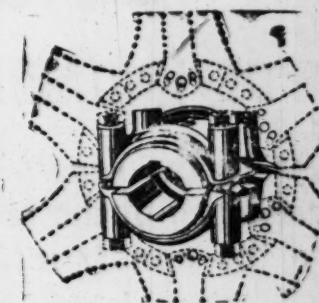

If you are the man upon whom depends the profits of your plant, dismiss for a moment the thought of increased selling prices of your product and consider that power cost is a most unessential expense in manufacturing cost. This loss is needless and in all probability will be eliminated once and for all by the adoption of the S-K-F ball bearing.

Get in touch with us by phone or write for what you want when you want it. Our representatives will go any distance to reach you with "THE CHICAGO LINE," and remember there will be no delay in the delivery of the merchandise.

Be sure that you have a copy of our catalog E in your files. If not, let us know immediately, and we will forward it to you.

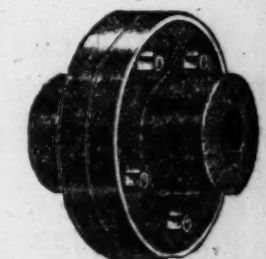

The Oneida Steel Pulley uses two sets of arms, beginning with the 8-inch face in the small size 10-inch in the medium size, and 12-inch in the large size. Other steel pulleys begin to use two sets of arms only when the pulley face reaches 18-inch width. This double arm service is especially desirable where a shifting belt is used, as it furnishes a set of arms directly under the belt whether it is running on the loose or operating side of the pulley.

Ribbed Couplings

Adapted to all general line shaft requirements. Make the connection between two lengths of shafting as strong as any other part of the shaft.

Flange Couplings

are made for large shafts and heavy service. They give a connection which secures and maintains the very best possible alignment.

Standard Keyless Couplings

A dependable compression coupling, giving driving power. Grips the shaft and holds. Any ordinary workman can apply this coupling in a few minutes' time.

No. 2 Three-Piece Ball Thrust Bearing

Designed to effectively absorb end thrust of line shafting and for general machine work.

Collars

Made solid and split for all sizes of shafting. Set screws and bolts protected as required by law.

National Steel Split Pulley

A strong little pulley 3-inch to 6-inch in diameter. Uses the bushing system, and can be made to fit a wide range of shafting sizes. Ideal for small motors and dynamos.

U. S. WITHDRAWS OFFER TO BUY BRITISH SHIPS

International Mercantile Marine Free to Do
as It Pleases.

New York, April 3.—The United States government has withdrawn its proposals to purchase the British owned tonnage of the International Mercantile Marine.

This was announced today by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the company, who said that he had been informed by the government authorities that they "could not further consider possible acquisition of the ownership of our (the company's) British tonnage and that we were free so far as they were concerned to deal with the property as we may consider desirable."

The tonnage involved in the proposals, now abandoned, included such ships as the Baltic and the Olympic. They were to be sold to a British syndicate for $125,000,000, and the deal was in progress when the United States government stepped in last November disapproving of the sale and offering to take over the vessels upon the terms of the British offer.

Conditions Are Changed.

"The conditions in shipping have materially altered since our negotiations with the British syndicate," said Mr. Franklin. "The armistice has, in the meantime, been signed, and there have been changes in the United States income and excess profits tax laws, and in the exchange situation. All of these matters make it essential that the board of directors should carefully review the whole situation before deciding whether it is now desirable to renew the negotiations with the British syndicate, or whether it might not be preferable to continue our ownership of the various properties, with the view of developing them under the American and foreign flag.

Earnings About Same.

"While definite figures are not yet available, the most recent estimates indicate that the earnings for 1918 will be approximately the same as those for 1917."

"The tonnage of the I. M. M. company fleet, including its interest in steamers jointly owned, amounts approximately to 984,000 tons gross, divided substantially as to flag as follows: American, 112,000 tons; British, 853,000 tons; Belgian, 19,000 tons."

Mr. Franklin said he did not know the reason for the United States government's withdrawal from the deal.

UNITED STATES FACES DEFICIT OF $3,500,000,000

Representative Good of Iowa Says More Bonds
Are Needed.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—(Special.)—In a carefully prepared and comprehensive analysis of the government finances and the financial outlook, Representative Good of Iowa, the next chairman of the house appropriations committee, declared today that even after the Victory loan is floated the United States will be confronted by a deficit of $3,500,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920.

Despite the treasury department's hope to make the Victory loan the last popular issue, Mr. Good said the $3,500,000,000 deficit must be met in part by the sale of additional bonds. Some of it will no doubt be made up by war salvage receipts, he added.

Representative Good said that the total appropriations for the war and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, would total $53,000,000,000.

The total national debt on July 1 will be about $24,000,000,000, he figured, and the annual interest on this will almost equal the total annual expenditures for the government prior to 1916.

Here is the way the money for the war expenditures has been, or will be, raised, according to Mr. Good:

From customs, internal revenue, etc.:

Quick Relief From Constipation

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

EDUCATED LOBS OF CRAFTY SLABMEN SUBDUE CUBS, 4 TO 1

SLOW TEASERS FLOAT RIGHT BY BATS OF CHAMPS

Vernon Bunches Its Hits
Off Harry Weaver for Easy Triumph.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 3.—[Special.]—Two oldtime National league pitchers slow balled the Cubs into defeat, the Vernon team taking the Chicago champions into camp, 4 to 1, because Weaver, Deal, and Dally did some size swatting, but the rest of them were quite helpless.

Helpless for Seven Rounds.

For the first seven rounds, the Mitchell men were taking heavy swings and either missing or popping up. Hollocher, Deal, and Dally did some size swatting, but the rest of them were quite helpless.

On the other hand, the Vernon fellows always noted as sluggers, were taking too much of the curves of young Harry Weaver and poling terrific drives to all parts of the field. They made only seven hits, but six of them were bunched in the fourth, fifth, and sixth rounds, and these, with one error, made it easy for the home folks. After Weaver had been given his last trim, Claude Hendrix went in and finished the game in stylish form.

Vernon Fans Follow Club.

The game was played in Los Angeles park, but a crowd of about 1,500 fans trailed in from Vernon to root, and made more noise than 5,000 Los Angeles fans can make.

The Vernon outfit carries such well known batters as Babe Borton, one time with the White Sox; Chabourne, one leader with the Reds, and Edguch, Meusel, and Beck, who have gained fame on the coast. They have been practicing long drives for nearly a month.

The only run counted by the Cubs came in the fifth, with one out, when Slack walked and Hollocher doubled.

Notes of the Cubs

The Cubs now have won nine and lost two against the coast leaguers. Tomorrow Mitchell's men play the Los Angeles team, the entire proceeds to go to the Salvation Army.

Immediately after tomorrow's fracas the Cubs will entrain for San Francisco, where they play Saturday and Sunday, with a Sunday morning game at Oakland sandwiched in between.

It will take some hot weather and some steady practice to get the Chicago pitching staff in shape for the opening. Tyler has a sore arm. Vaughn still is weak from his illness, and Hendrix hasn't yet gained his speed. Douglas is in fair shape, but is the only one anywhere near condition. Carter and Aldrich are nursing sore arms, and though Weaver seemed in shape he was pounded hard by Vernon.

'Slim' Sallee in Bad Shape;

May Not Pitch This Season

Cincinnati, O., April 3.—Special dispatches from the Reds' training camp at Wapakoneta, Tex., say Pitcher Slim Sallee is in bad shape with a lame back and may not be able to pitch this season. Sallee will leave for Cincinnati tomorrow to consult local physicians.

Aleck Coming

Cubs' Star Expected to Arrive in New York April 14.

OUT at Cub park yesterday Vice President Billee, who is expected to arrive in New York, was organized himself into a song and dance team and surprised the quiet neighborhood with this joyous jingle:

"Aleck is coming; Aleck is coming."

A telegram from Mrs. Grover Cleveland Alexander, who is in Newport, Ky., where she is attending to the care of her mother, stated that she expected to be in Chicago waiting for the Cubs when they come home to start their battle for another National league pennant April 23.

Fullerton's Figures Rate

Hornsby Above Hollocher

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.

There must be something in this dope.

Here we take the shortstop of eight clubs, without thinking of anything except to take their official record in hitting, waiting, getting hit by pitched ball, running the bases, fielding, throwing, and every department of the game, and apply these figures to a system, and then when the figures are compiled and added we discover they show the value of players to be just about what the wise ones in the baseball world rate them to be. We find further that the dope on two men over whom many arguments arise now so closely that they practically are tied.

The dope shows the values of the shortstop of the National league closer than ever before, St. Louis leading by only eight points over Chicago, so that it gives the Hornsby fans little comfort over the Hollocher admirers. At that I have had to allow a little extra credit for the almost certain improvement in Hornsby's work this year, and to shade Hollocher's values a trifle, because it is certain he will not go quite so good this year as he did last. His gait was a trifle too fast even for him to maintain.

Five of Them Bunched.

The first five shortstops of the National league rank so closely that it is little to choose among them and to put the great Bancroft, who formerly has been at the top in dope figures, fourth, shows how closely the figures follow the form of the men. Fletcher I have had to derate also.

Cincinnati is at the bottom of the list and an explanation is necessary. At this time in the doping the team has moved south without a shortstop. I am tipped that Sam Crane is to get the job, and therefore I have been compelled to figure him for the position.

Moran appears to have as much faith in the future of this young fellow as I have had for several years. When he joined the Washington club I expected great things of him, but they were not forthcoming.

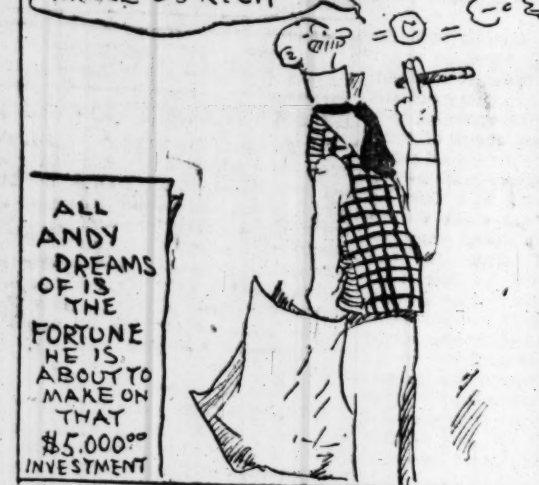

N. L. Better at Short.

He is fast, he can hunt and handle a stick well, and he can field up to the standard of the league, which is on the average stronger in the shortstop position than in any other, possessing more really brilliant players at short than the American league can boast.

There will be eight great fielding shortstops in the National this season, with Olson ranking last, although only twenty-eight points behind the leader in fielding, who, of course, is Maranville by a slight margin. Hollocher might have gained the lead but for the fact that he demonstrated last season many times that he is not strong in moving to his right and a slow starter after ground balls hit between him and third base unless set. Also, Hollocher, in spite of his ardent admirers, must learn to shut out the batters who ever is to rank with the great shortstops of the past.

Also, Hollocher, in spite of his ardent admirers, must learn to shut out the batters who ever is to rank with the great shortstops of the past.

In the American league the talent is not so evenly distributed and the difference in rating is more marked. Cleveland leads by a short margin over the Yankees. Peckinpaugh, Chapman, Bush, and Scott rank extremely close together in the figures. Bush, who usually figures best of them all, has slipped back a trifle and besides that I was compelled to reduce his values somewhat because of his determination to hold out so long. Bush has been drawing the number of bases on balls in the last two years that he used to get. Bases on balls gave him the greatest value in lack of any of the shortstops, and as he drops back he loses offensive strength.

Chapman Looks Well.

Peckinpaugh and Chapman both went great guns last season and kept up the gait even during the slump of interest following the work or fight order. Chapman looks wonderfully well after his experience in the army, and started south in superb physical condition and as he drops back he loses offensive strength.

Must Count on Sub, Too.

You understand that in no case can we figure the shortstop value of any team on one man. Not one infielder in a hundred plays every game in a season, so these figures never exactly the value of one player but of the regular player in conjunction with the value of his understudy. I usually figure this by a slight margin. Hollocher is the regular player in the shortstop position and is liable to be out of a larger number of games.

A good infield understudy is worth almost as much as a regular to a team, and some of the clubs which are without capable subs on the bench are going to be hit hard.

In the next article we will tackle the third basemen, where some big changes may be looked for.

CATCHER INTERFERES

Here's Rule That Is Often Misinterpreted by Many.

BY BILLY EVANS.

PERHAPS no rule in baseball is more often misinterpreted than the one pertaining to interference by the catcher. Students of the game for years have argued that this rule needed revision more than any other.

Under the present rules, when the catcher interferes with the batter, the batsman is entitled to first base, regardless of whether he hits the ball or misses it, whether he reaches the base or is out on a fly.

No matter what happens when the batter strikes at a ball, in which he has been interfered with by the catcher, the batsman is entitled to first base. The big part of the rule relates to what happens to base runners, who may be on the bases at the time. In all such cases no runners can advance unless forced.

A wise catcher, if he believes a runner on third is about to steal home, or desires to break up the squeeze play, can create a legitimate argument with the batsman goes to first, but no other runners can advance unless forced.

If this rule was changed so the batsman was granted first base when the catcher interfered, and all other runners were allowed to advance, whether forced or not, interference would be rare, and would always be purely accidental.

GLEASON SHUFFLES

WHITE SOX LINEUPS

FOR ONE-A-DAY TOURS

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Mineral Wells, Tex., April 3.—[Special.]—Another day's rest was forced on the White Sox today by the Palo Pinto weather man, and it probably will be his last chance to treat 'em rough.

Plans have been changed so that all hands will decamp tomorrow for good. Instead of having one squad stay here another week, as originally scheduled. A few changes were made in the alignment of the two squads on account of the new deal. Catcher Arthur Hardy arrived from Savannah and was assigned to help Stump with the receiving for the No. 2 team. Red Faber and Claude Williams were drafted from the Goofs to the first squad, and Pitchers Sullivan and Hansen were given to John Collins to fill up his slab staff.

New Lineup of Teams.

REGULARS—Leblond, rf; Weaver, 3b; Collins, 2b; Jackson, lf; Felsch, cf; Gambl, 1b; Rubeberg, ss; Schalk and Lynn, c; Gleason, p. Substitutes—Roberson, Danforth, McInnes and Kern, p; Muller, McInnes, Guffy—Conroy, ss; Harrigan, 2b; McInnes, 3b; J. Collins, lf; Meuld, rf; Bens, cf; Henry, 1b; Stump and Hardy, c; Bens, 2b; Russell, Corey, Sullivan, Stewart, and Hansen, p; utility, Range.

The switch of fact Sullivan to the second team probably is temporary. He is a southpaw, and Doc White, former Sox star, is owner of the Waco club, where the No. 2 team plays Saturday and Sunday. A request has been forwarded to Doc to don a uniform and teach Sullivan how to pitch the famous White slow ball which kept Doc in the American league a couple of years after he had lost his old time speed.

White also may be able to improve Sullivan's curve, but Gleason expects to be able to do that. The youngster from the army has proved an apt pupil, and with the speed and spittball which he already has, will make himself a hard boiled egg if he can master a slow ball and perfect his curve.

Pittsburgh Bars Miske

as Result of Greb Bout

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 3.—[Special.]—Rock Island made his last appearance in a Pittsburgh ring, according to county and city officials, who today issued orders that Miske should not be permitted to appear in the ring again, following his bout with Harry Greb Monday night.

Referee Dillon declared that from the outset he was satisfied Miske was pulling. "I continually called upon Miske to fight," Dillon said.

LIEUT. CARPENDER

SUCCEEDS KAUFMAN

Lieut. Commander Arthur S. Car-

pender of the U. S. destroyer Pan-fang has been promoted to succeed Commander John B. Kaufman as athletic officer at Great Lakes Naval Training station. Lieut. Carpendler is a graduate of Annapolis and was a member of the crew of the Fanning in European waters.

Commander Kaufman, who soon leaves for sea duty, expects Lieut. Carpendler to take over the routine inside of a week. The new athletic officer is highly recommended by Dr. Kaufman, who has recovered from his recent nervous breakdown.

Nebraska House Passes

Denatured Boxing Bill

Lincoln, Neb., April 3.—The lower house of the legislature tonight passed a boxing bill so amended as to remove all possibility of prize fighting. It provides for a limit of ten rounds with large gloves, for a limited number of spectators and for no admission fee.

CHAMP ROBESON

BEATEN AT GOLF

Pinhurst, N. C., April 3.—Irving S. Robeson, champion, was defeated in the second match round of the north-south golf championship tournament at Pinhurst, losing to Edward C. Beall of Uniontown, Pa., 4 and 2. Summaries championship sixteen:

P. C. Newton, Brookline, defeated D. Bishop, Dorchester, 5 and 3; F. H. Gates, Moore County, defeated Wm. B. Bowman, South Carolina, 1 up, 10 holes; E. J. Beall, Uniontown, Pa., defeated Robeson, 4 and 2; W. M. W. K. Kennerly was from O. A. Dixon Jr., National, 4 and 3.

DEMISTRAL VS. LINOW TONIGHT.

William Demistral and Jack Linow will clash for the fourth time tonight at the Bayview Theater. Each had a victory and the third match was a draw.

GLEASON SHUFFLES WHITE SOX LINEUPS FOR ONE-A-DAY TOURS

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Mineral Wells, Tex., April 3.—[Special.]—Another day's rest was forced on the White Sox today by the Palo Pinto weather man, and it probably will be his last chance to treat 'em rough.

Plans have been changed so that all hands will decamp tomorrow for good. Instead of having one squad stay here another week, as originally scheduled. A few changes were made in the alignment of the two squads on account of the new deal. Catcher Arthur Hardy arrived from Savannah and was assigned to help Stump with the receiving for the No. 2 team. Red Faber and Claude Williams were drafted from the Goofs to the first squad, and Pitchers Sullivan and Hansen were given to John Collins to fill up his slab staff.

New Lineup of Teams.

REGULARS—Leblond, rf; Weaver, 3b; Collins, 2b; Jackson, lf; Felsch, cf; Gambl, 1b; Rubeberg, ss; Schalk and Lynn, c; Gleason, p. Substitutes—Roberson, Danforth, McInnes and Kern, p; Muller, McInnes, Guffy—Conroy, ss; Harrigan, 2b; McInnes, 3b; J. Collins, lf; Meuld, rf; Bens, cf; Henry, 1b; Stump and Hardy, c; Bens, 2b; Russell, Corey, Sullivan, Stewart, and Hansen, p; utility, Range.

Madison Street Has Influx of Good Bad Men

"A FIGHT FOR LOVE"

Produced by Universal.
Directed by Jack Farrow.
Presented at the Casino.

THE CAST.
Cheyenne Harry.....Harry Carey
Black Michel.....Joe Harris
Eddie McLean.....Neva Gerber
Angus McLean.....Mark Weston
The priest.....J. Farrell McDonald

By Mae Tins.

The good bad men of the west, of whom there are now a recognized three, have been having things their own way on Madison street. There was Mr. Hart playing "The Poppy Girl's Husband." Next door was his rival, Tom Mix, "Fighting for Gold," and getting away with some hard riding and hard loving. Across the street was Harry Carey in "A Fight for Love."

Now Harry Carey, I imagine, might be best described as a cowboy de luxe. Like his two famed brothers of the film, he and his horse are one, he walks bow-legged, talks bad English, and is as cuddly as a rattlesnake when enraged. But all this she gets across with a difference. His strangeness is tinged with languor. Lushly, good naturedly, his manner says to you:

"Sure, I can do it—but what's the difference? It'll all be the same a hundred years from now."

Then, just to show you that he can make good his boast, he "shows" you—and gives you a good show for your money, too. He's tremendously likable. Most fans will find Mr. Harry B. Carey.

The plots of all western pictures are more or less alike, and "A Fight for Love" is no exception. The picture is a success in the beautiful, however. The acting is good. And the photography is excellent.

"FIGHTING FOR GOLD"
Produced by Fox.
Directed by Edward Z. Le Saint.
Presented at the Alhambra.

THE CAST.
Jack Kimmey.....Tom Mix
Moyra.....Teddy Sampson
Joe Harris.....Ed Jones
Curly Brandom.....Jack Nelson
Lord Verinder.....L. Lomdale
Lord Farquhar.....Robert Donahue
Lady Farquhar.....Hattie Baskin
The Sheriff.....Frank Clark
Patsy.....Ludell Young

This time you find Tom Mix scrapping with a syndicate that's trying to bend the Wild West to its will in the matter of ore disposal. Mr. Mix, who is a law abiding citizen when his common sense tells him the law is right, in the present struggle is busy as a cranberry merchant doing things his own way.

The head of the syndicate is an Englishman and he's got a party to give the night of the week. With him is the beautiful Moyra. Unexpectedly Moyra and the cowboy meet and it develops that Kimmey is no other than her cousin. Now put two and two together and you know the finish as well as I do.

Pathos is introduced by the death of Kimmey's bunk mate—a weak and lovable renegade Englishman. The comedy touch is furnished by a tame brown bear which serves the hero in lieu of a dog. Like the Carey picture, "Fighting for Gold" has lots of scenery and atmosphere. And here is a point to observe regarding both pictures.

Each brings back a heroine, formerly a favorite, distinguished lately by absence from the films. Neva Gerber sets the Carey heart pit-a-patting and Teddy Sampson performs the same office for Tom Mix.

Tribune Cook Book
BY JANE EDDINGTON.
The Grouper.

The latest mail has brought Economic Circular No. 44 of the department of commerce, bureau of fisheries, which has the title "Grouper; Food You Should Try, with Recipes for Cooking Them." This was issued March 21, and the twenty-nine recipes in it were prepared by Miss Evelyn Spencer, who, with her mother, recently lectured here under the auspices of the fisheries bureau.

The description of the grouper, by H. P. Moore, director commissioner of the bureau of fisheries, discusses canning as a native does it, and the picture of the grouper on the first page of the circular does indeed show how the war transports might have got their idea from the sea.

These fish attain a weight of fifty pounds, but those we have seen in our markets have probably averaged not more than six or eight. They associate with the red snappers and are fully appreciated in their native shores. For other proof than those mentioned in the circular we have but to refer to "The Playmate's Creole Cook Book," which gives a recipe for baked grouper and says further to use this fish as a substitute for red snapper in recipes for the latter.

The circular says: "Quantities of them are carried alive from Florida to Cuba in smacks provided with 'wells' or compartments communicating with the sea, and the fishermen for their own food prefer them to most other species. Their flesh is firm and white. They keep well and are shipped for long distances, and their excellence and abundance induce the bureau of fisheries to commend them to consumers. Grouper are usually shipped gutted and headless, which saves on transportation charges and by so much reduces the price to the consumer."

There are full directions in this circular for the preparation of the fish, but it seems to me that it is most sensible to buy the fish in unskinned chunks.

The best recipe is that by the "quick oven method, in improvement on frying," which we have demonstrated here two weeks ago. Half of the recipes are devoted to what you can do with the fish left over from this cooking or from steaming grouper.

REAL LOVE STORIES

Do you know a real love story—one that is stronger than fiction? It is in the "Go Big" type of "Beauty" films. The "Beauty" films will pay $100,000 for every story published. No manuscript returned. Address: Doris Blake, "The Tribune," Chicago.

Comparing Photographs.
Some years ago a young man was in charge of a baby picture contest put on by a newspaper. Scores of photographs were sent in, not only by proud parents but also by many young men and women who took great pride in their own pictures of babyhood days. The prize winner was the photo of a baby girl which had been sent in by the owner, who stated that though she was a little older now she still treasured this photo and asked for its return.

In returning the photographs to the owners this young man in a spirit of devilry sent his own baby picture—a fat little rascal of 14 months—along with the prize winner. He inclosed the following note: "Believing that my own baby photo pairs up well with your prize winner, I am sending it along for your examination and approval. What do you think about it?" In a few days his photo was returned, together with another of a self-conscious lass of 5 years, also accompanied by this letter: "I certainly think you are right in your opinion, though you really flatter me; you are a fine looking youngster. Can you match the inclosed photo?"

He immediately wrote to his folks for all of his childhood pictures, and upon receiving them he picked out one that was taken at the age of 8. This he sent to the girl or woman—he knew not her age—along with the picture she had sent him, also accompanied by a joking note.

During the next few weeks two or three more photos were exchanged, taken up to the age of about 18. The young man had by now become exceedingly interested in his unknown correspondent and so one day he decided to run out to her home town, which was not far distant.

Upon reaching the house he stepped a young woman he judged to be about 24 looking down in the yard. He entered the yard and asked if she was Miss —, and upon receiving an affirmative answer he laughed and said: "Well, how do we match up now?" This knew who he was and laughed back. "Why, I think just fine, don't you?" In a few short months the wedding bells rang out.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS
Father Frowns on Him.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a boy 30 years old and have been going with a dear little girl 17 years old for two months or more. I think a great deal of her and was very happy the first month I kept company with her, because she returned my affection. Her father is an attorney, a business man and always frowns at me about 10 o'clock, so I leave. Yesterday she told me she must stop my company because her father disapproved. Upon asking her why she said I did not amount to anything, smoked cigars, and played poker."

"Now I admit I do this, but no more than other fellows in this town, and I don't think that is any reason to jilt me. She says she would never go against her father's wishes and therefore will not get with me any more. I love her dearly. What shall I do?"

Burton often greatly annoyed his mother by creeping about on the floor and wearing great holes in his stockings and trousers.

One day she said to him: "Burton, do get up from the floor!"

He looked up innocently and replied: "I ain't Burton, I'm a dog."

I was making the bed one morning while Rudge was busy himself with respect to colors, taking the colors of draperies, etc. I was just placing a comforter of an oriental design on the bed, and asked Rudge the color of it.

He replied, "Well, I can't say it all at once."

Mildred had accompanied her father to the nearby village and on her return was telling her mother of a woman she saw there. Her mother asked if it was a certain woman, and Mildred immediately replied: "No, mother, she looked newer than that."

Her father is an attorney, a business man and always frowns at me about 10 o'clock, so I leave. Yesterday she told me she must stop my company because her father disapproved. Upon asking her why she said I did not amount to anything, smoked cigars, and played poker."

"Now I admit I do this, but no more than other fellows in this town, and I don't think that is any reason to jilt me. She says she would never go against her father's wishes and therefore will not get with me any more. I love her dearly. What shall I do?"

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a boy 30 years old and have been going with a dear little girl 17 years old for two months or more. I think a great deal of her and was very happy the first month I kept company with her, because she returned my affection. ## SOCIETY and Entertainments

Mrs. W. S. Brewster to Bring Back "Movies" of French War Babies

In a cable received day before yesterday at the headquarters of the Fatherless Children of France in the Fine Arts building, Mrs. Walter S. Brewster announced that she and Mr. Brewster would sail for home next Monday on the same ship on which they went over, the Baginac.

Mrs. Brewster, who went to France in February in the interest of the Fatherless Children of France, of which she is the Chicago chairman, has had many interesting experiences during her stay there. She recently was entertained by President and Mme. Poincaré, and was received by Cardinal Amette, archbishop of Paris. The French government placed a motion picture man, together with other necessary attaches, at the disposal of Mrs. Brewster, and in touring the devastated districts moving pictures of the thousands of children in need of care were taken. These pictures, which will be of great interest to the many Chicagoans who have adopted little French children, will be brought here by Mrs. Brewster.

Plans for the entertainment tomorrow afternoon at Mrs. Arthur J. Benson's for the benefit of the Fatherless Children of France are complete, and the 200 children, who have been invited to come to the "Chicago" which will be given by Herman Rosse, The Misses Janet Fairbank and Genevieve Carpenter will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Eckhart of 1550 Lake Shore drive returned last week from California, where they had been for three months. Mrs. Eckhart left immediately for Boston, where she joined her grandson, Billy Brophy, who attends school near there, and took him to Atlantic City for the spring holidays. Mrs. Eckhart will return to Chicago next week.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Chalmers of 1100 Lake Shore drive will return the first of next week from New York City, where they met their son, Maj. Thomas S. Chalmers, who landed on Wednesday from overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Dixon of 70 West Street and their niece, Miss Elizabeth Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Martin of 191 East Walton place, will return on Monday from California.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. McKinnock of 1200 Lake Shore drive will open their Lake Forest residence a week from Monday.

Mrs. Paul Wilder has returned from Clarksville, Miss., and she and Mr. Wilder have taken an apartment at 1155 Astor street.

Mrs. A. Montgomery Ward and Miss Margaret Ward of 425 Wellington avenue have returned from Old Point Comfort, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Newton Perry and children of Lake Forest will return from the Virginia Hot Springs next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ackert and their niece, Miss Ruth Dugan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben A. Dugan of Hyde Park, returned yesterday from Belleair, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Ackert are spending a few days at the Onwenta club until their residence in Lake Forest is ready for occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. Dugan and Miss Dugan will move to Evanston on May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Dickinson of 1210 Astor street have returned from California, where they spent the winter.

Mrs. Henry B. Keep and her small son, who spent the winter with Mrs. Keep's parents in New Orleans, will come to Chicago in about two weeks to visit Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Keep of 1500 Lake Shore drive.

Mrs. D. Mark Cummings and daughter, Miss Edith Cummings, and Mrs. Cummings' mother, Mrs. Chas. A. Dugan of 1550 North State parkway, will return from Augusta, Ga., where they went a fortnight ago, about the last of this month. The Cummings are planning to open their Lake Forest residence during the second week in May.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Ingalls and family will move Wednesday from 18 West Walton place to 33 Bellevue place. In July they will go to Barbours, Me., to spend the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. David P. Thompson of 150 East Chestnut street will return tomorrow from the Virginia Hot Springs. Mrs. S. Louis Slade who spent several days here on her way home from St. Louis left yesterday for New York City.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Ward Thorne of 1200 Lake Shore drive will come home Sunday from the Virginia Hot Springs.

The Consul General of Sweden and Mrs. de Goes of 1235 Astor street will give an at home this evening.

The clearance sale for the benefit of the Children's Memorial hospital held at the Calumet club will not be continued today as previously announced, for everything was sold by yesterday noon. People who had planned to attend the sale today were asked to stop in the new Rummage shop, 27 East Ohio street, and inspect the articles on sale there.

Mrs. Howard Linn, Mrs. Paul Bartlett, Mrs. Mark Walton, and Mrs. Alexander F. Stevenson Jr. will pop at the 15 to 6 at the Arts club for the members of the theatrical profession, who are now in the city.

Mrs. Guerin, official lecturer of the Fraternal League of the Children of France under the Service of Public Utilities of Paris, will arrive in Chicago Sunday. During her visit here she will speak at several affairs and a number of luncheons and receptions will be given for her.

Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt Marries Lt. Paul Fitzsimons

Newport, R. I., April 3.—[Special.]—Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt, former wife of Alfred Guyne Vanderbilt, who was lost on the Lusitania, was married today to Lieut. Paul Fitzsimons, U. S. N., son of the late medical director, Paul Fitzsimons, U. S. N. The wedding took place at the bride's home here, Harborview. Only a few friends were present. After the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Fitzsimons departed for Mrs. Fitzsimons' farm at Chester, N. H.

Mrs. Vanderbilt had obtained a divorce from her former husband several years before his death and custody of her son, William H. Vanderbilt. He is an ensign in the navy, attached to the destroyer Evans, on which Lieut. Fitzsimons also is an officer. Lieut. Fitzsimons is 27 years old. Mrs. Vanderbilt is 39.

The first that was known of the approaching marriage was when Mrs. Vanderbilt and Lieut. Fitzsimons appeared at city hall a short time after it was opened this morning and applied to City Clerk Fullerton for a marriage license. They returned to Mrs. Vanderbilt's home, Harborview, and there just about 11 o'clock, in the presence of a small party of relatives and friends, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stanley C. Hughes, rector of Trinity church.

In the party, besides the bride's son, were Maj. and Mrs. Amos Tuck French, Gov. and Mrs. R. Livingston Beckman, the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fitzsimons, Col. and Mrs. Chaffin, Miss Helen North, Bishop de Wolf Perry, Dr. and Mrs. Roderick Terry, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell, and Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Van Rensselaer.

The house had been decorated with palms and flowers, and immediately after the ceremony a bridal breakfast was served.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of light blue, with a small French hat to match, and she was given in marriage by her brother, Maj. Amos Tuck French, Maj. and Mrs. French only this week returned from France, where they have been for the last year. There were no attendants.

The bride and groom were whisked away in an automobile by Ensign Vanderbilt immediately after the breakfast.

At the time her son was assigned to the Evans, Mrs. Vanderbilt visited the ship, and, noting that it was somewhat of a furnished, obtained permission to visit it. She was there made thoroughly comfortable and attractive for both officers and crew.

After she had been to the city hall to obtain her marriage license, Mrs. Vanderbilt stopped at the rooming house of the Newport chapter of the Red Cross, of which she is vice chairman, told the workers that she was on her way to be married, and she was showered with congratulations.

The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucy L. Flower, and Mrs. Elliott Flower, Miss Flower, Mrs. William Dow Harvey, daughter of the bride, and Mrs. Delano Grant of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Farwell and Mrs. Farwell's daughter, Mrs. Peter Cooper Bryce of 789 Park avenue have gone to West Virginia, where they plan to remain for several weeks.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding on April 26 of Miss Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mrs. Archibald Henderson Smith of Stamford, Conn., and Lieut. Hunter Van Bell, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Berg of 34 Gramercy park. The ceremony will be solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, Stamford, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hutchinson Jr. of Montclair, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Ostrander Hutchinson, to Sylvester Emmerson Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker of Oak Park, Ill. The wedding will take place in September.

Representative James R. Mann and Mrs. Mann, who returned a few days ago from Atlantic City, left today for Chicago.

Senora Dora Maria Bortone de Bonillas, wife of the ambassador of Mexico, was the guest in honor Mrs. William Phillips, wife of the acting secretary of state, entertained at luncheon today.

Mrs. George T. Mayne also was a hostess at luncheon today, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. Edward W. Eberle, wife of Rear Admiral Eberle, who is visiting in Washington.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Brown yesterday celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert S. Haldean, 6031 Kenmore avenue. Nearly a hundred relatives were present. Mr. Brown is 83; his wife, 73.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint smudges and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound into a dark cover, and the overall lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the paper.

STOP AND THINK OF THIS A MINUTE.

You have no means of knowing what is in a can of paint when you buy it—and if you knew, you would not know whether it suited your purpose and would stand up. You can't tell about it until you spread it on the floor or wall and wait for time to show whether it wears.

Then you know, but your experience does you no good.

You don't know that the next can you buy contains the same ingredients, made in the same way, to stand up as well, until you spread it, and wait.

You can't count the gain until months go by. So do not buy cheap paint: buy the safeguard of a manufacturer's trademark and reputation.

The Important Thing to You Is: Who Made the Paint?

Is it made by a concern known the world over, with resources and facilities to know how and a big investment to protect to force it to make paint right?

Or is it made by a concern without resources or reputation at stake that has to make cheap paint to sell cheap, no matter how long it stands up?

Your safeguard is the name and reputation of the maker—the trademark on the can. The Sherwin-Williams Co. is over 53 years old, known all over the world, and you can bank on its knowing how to make paint that will wear and that the can always contains the same thing when the same label appears on the can.

That is worth money to you as a buyer. Giving buyers their money's worth is what made the Sherwin-Williams Co. well known.

The Cover-the-Earth mark is your protection. We cover the earth to get the right materials—lead, zinc, gum, flaxseed, pigments, turpentine, oils, colors—to make each product right. We go to the source to know it is right. That is why Sherwin-Williams' Products Cover-the-Earth. Look for the Cover-the-Earth mark always.
